UNCLE SAM NOT PLANNING TO INTERVENE, SAYS TAFT

President Assures Cuba Sending of Warships to Key West is Mere Ordinary Measure of Precaution.

Washington, May 27.—President Taft today replied to President Gomez's telegram of yesterday regarding the attitude of the United States toward Cuba. He declared the American government's activities in mobilizing war vessels at Key West and dispatching the Prairie with marines to Guantanamo was not in any sense an intervention move. The following is the text of the message:

"I am sincerely gratified to learn of your government's energetic measures to put down the disturbance and to know that you are confident of being successful. As was fully explained to the Cuban charge d'affaires here this government's motive in sending ships to Key West, just as sending the Prairie to the Guantanamo naval station, was merely to be able to act promptly in case it should unfortunately become necessary to protect American life and property by rendering moral support or assistance to the Cuban government. As was made quite clear at the time these ordinary measures of precaution were entirely disassociated from any question of intervention.

(Signed) "WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT."

WILL ACT PROMPTLY.

In Affording Protection to Americans if Cuba Cannot Do So.

Washington, May 27.—Feeling assured that President Gomez has misunderstood the purpose of the American government in dispatching the large naval force now on its way to Key West, the state department after having instructed American Minister Beaupre at Havana, to make plain to the Cuban government the purpose of the movement, has now left to the discretion of Col. Karmany, commanding the marine force, en route on the cruiser Prairie and due at Guantanamo tomorrow, the extent to which the marines shall be employed.

It is believed that as soon as President Gomez is made aware of the fact that there is no sinister purpose behind the movements of the naval vessels and their commanders will do nothing more than use their forces to prevent injury to American lives and property, he no longer will object. It is thoroughly appreciated here that the Cuban president must assume a rather resentful attitude toward what might appear to be an invasion of the island, lest the patriotism of the Cubans be stirred to resistance. Should he persist in his objection, however, American naval commanders will not remain indifferent to the demands of Americans for protection where it is clear that the Cuban government cannot afford it.

Admiral Osterhaus' expeditionary fleet, which is due at Key West Wednesday, will not move at once into Cuban waters unless something should happen in the meantime to demand its presence there. It is said by the authorities here that the signal for the disposition of the American ships among the various Cuban forts will await the decision of American Minister Beaupre at Havana, unless he should be so hampered by destroyed telegraphic communication from obtaining information as to what is going on in the distant eastern end of the island from where the disturbances are at present focussed to make it necessary for the state department to act independently of his suggestion.

The only news which reached the state department over night regarding the Cuban situation related to the dock strike at Havana. Generally speaking, the prospects of a temporary settlement at least were reported to be brighter. It is felt at the state department, however, that the men now on strike will remain in a more or less discontented state of mind for some time and that they might easily be drawn into the rebellion against the government if that movement should extend much beyond its present limits.

BIG FLEET TO KEY WEST.

Imposing Array of Sea Fighters on Way to Southern Coast.

Norfolk, Va., May 27.—With the battleships Georgia, Rhode Island and New Jersey steaming rapidly southward today, after having taken aboard in Hampton Roads last night 400 marines from the Norfolk navy yard for possible duty in Cuba, the armored cruiser Washington came in today and after taking on 250 additional marines from the Norfolk garrison, sailed under Admiral Osterhaus for Key West. The battleships Georgia, Rhode Island and New Jersey, which came in late yesterday under full steam, like the Washington, remained only long enough to take aboard the marine from Norfolk and sufficient supplies for the emergency. They passed out the Virginia capes shortly before midnight bound for Key West, where they will await such further orders as developments in the Cuban trouble may bring forth.

LORIMER WILL NOT RESIGN, SAYS SON

Illinois Senator Proposes to Continue Fight to Retain Seat.

SHERMAN KEEPS MUM

Chicago, May 27.—William Lorimer, Jr., son of United States Senator Lorimer, yesterday said that his father would not give up his seat in the senate without a struggle.

Denial of a rumor that Senator Lorimer's resignation had been taken back to Washington by Vice President Sherman also was made by Lorimer, jr.

"It is not likely that the vice president of the United States would make a messenger boy of himself," he said. "My father has not resigned so far, as far as I know, and I do not believe that it is likely he will resign. The rumor is improbable on the face of it. It is not my father's nature to give up. If he goes down he will go down fighting."

During the day Senator Lorimer personally announced that he would go to Washington within two or three days if his physical condition becomes no worse. The senator is suffering from bronchitis.

SHERMAN WILL NOT TALK.

Washington, May 27.—Vice President Sherman returned to Washington yesterday from his hurried trip to Chicago, where it was rumored he went to confer with Senator Lorimer regarding the charges now pending against him in the senate.

The vice president refused to discuss his trip in any manner, and would neither affirm nor deny anything regarding the Lorimer situation.

LORIMER MERELY SMILES.

Illinois Senator Willing to Talk Only About Weather.

Chicago, May 27.—United States Senator William Lorimer appeared at the bank of which he is president today and was closely questioned concerning the visit of Vice President Sherman to Chicago last Saturday. The junior senator from Illinois made no objection to any of the questions asked him nor did he answer any of them, except to smile and reply that his health was improved or to comment on the weather.

Personal and political friends of the junior senator expressed their belief that he would not resign under any circumstances.

BANKERS WAN TO MOVE.

Applications for Pardon to Come Up at Leavenworth.

Leavenworth, Kas., May 27.—Chairman Ladow, of the board of parole of federal prisons, has announced he will convene the board here this week. Application of two hundred prisoners, among them ten members of the "bankers' colony" will be taken up.

The bankers whose applications will be considered are Paul C. Gall, P. M. Emrich, O. F. Cochran and N. R. Marker, Indianapolis; G. H. Osborne, Columbus, Ohio; Will F. Wood, San Antonio, Texas; Josse Gierahowski, Pittsburg, Pa.; C. E. Billings, Guthrie, Okla.; W. B. Allen and E. T. Cook, Paris, Texas.

TAKES ALARMING TURN.

Wilbur Wright's Condition Again Very Critical.

Dayton, O., May 27.—Wilbur Wright's condition took an alarming turn early today and fear was expressed over the probable outcome of the case of typhoid fever with which the noted aviator is suffering. Wright spent a restless night, with his physicians in almost constant attendance. Today it was stated that he was again unconscious and suffering with a high fever.

Boy of 18 Flies Over Lake Michigan, from Chicago to Milwaukee

FARNUM FISH.

Farnum Fish, 18 years old, a Los Angeles school boy aviator, in his flight from Chicago to Milwaukee Saturday, traveled over Lake Michigan and made the trip in two hours and ten minutes. Incidentally Fish broke the world's record for flight over water, heretofore held by Paulham, of France.

IT ISN'T TOO LATE TO PLANT TREES

City Forester Getz calls attention to the fact that trees may be planted as late as July, provided they have been properly cared for before planting. "The trees which the city is setting out for those who want them—Norway maples and pin oaks—are in a dormant condition," says Mr. Getz, "and can be placed safely for another month."

EARLY MORNING ALARM SOUNDED

West End Folk Thought Life Endangered by Escaping Gas.

LEAKING OIL DID IT

Hundreds of residents of Fort Wayne who live west of Broadway and north of the Pennsylvania railroad were awakened at 2:45 o'clock this morning by an overpowering odor of escaping gas that permeated the entire district and gave rise to fears of a possible disastrous explosion.

There was much alarm and the police department, the fire department and Manager S. E. Mulholland, of the Indiana Lighting company, were called simultaneously to the neighborhood. Mr. Mulholland called out all of his trouble men, believing from the number of calls sent in that the entire west end was near to destruction.

The big force swept through the district on a trip of investigation, working southward and as they neared the Pennsylvania the odor was distinctly stronger. Upon reaching the Pennsylvania tracks it was found that the alarm was caused by gas oil spread along the tracks for about a mile by a leaking tank car.

Mr. Mulholland was first notified by No. 4 engine house. This call was then followed by others at a rapid rate. The police patrol was called to the district in the neighborhood of the Pennsylvania tracks and College street and scores of families were aroused from their beds.

"I got out my machine and went all through this section of the city," said Mr. Mulholland. "Our men worked up and down the different streets and alleys, also, and we were all a trifle excited for the odor of escaping gas was terribly strong. When we went south of the Pennsylvania tracks, however, we could detect nothing. Noticing that the wind was from the south we went north again until we reached the terrorized region and then we soon found the gas oil along the tracks."

NAME HENRY D. BOND.

Vermont Business Man Chosen President of Baptists.

Des Moines, Ia., May 27.—Henry D. Bond, a business man of Brattleboro, Vt., was chosen president of the Northern Baptists' convention here today.

That the churches of today are hindered by little, narrow-minded Christians more than wickedness, was the declaration of Dr. James Whitcomb Brougher, of Los Angeles, before the convention which continued its session here today. During the morning the report of the commission on city missions was submitted. Several prominent church workers were scheduled to deliver addresses and the governor's reception was to be held late this afternoon.

"The Power of the Gospel to Evoke a Hatred of Sin," was the subject of an address by Rev. John W. Hoag, of New Haven, Conn., who discussed the social responsibility of the church.

THIRTY BRIDES-TO-BE ARRIVE.

New York, May 27.—Thirty brides-to-be from Scotland and Ireland reached New York today on the steamer Caledonia from Glasgow. Most of the young women were bound for points west of the Mississippi and in southwestern Canada.

NEW ARMY BILL REPORTED BACK

It Legislates Gen. Wood Out of His Place as Chief of Staff.

HEADS OFF OTHERS

Washington, May 27.—The army appropriation bill was reported back to the senate and house today by the conferees with anti-administration amendments which would legislate Major General Wood out of office as chief of staff and would leave the location and distribution of military posts to a commission of retired army officers and two members each of the senate and house committee on military affairs.

The amendment which would remove General Wood, also would prevent either Brig. Generals Crozier or Funston from ever attaining the office of chief of staff. No officer who has not spent ten years in the line with troops before becoming a brigadier would be eligible.

Many army officers charge that the fight between the line and the staff which recently resulted in the retirement from the army of Major Ainsworth, is responsible for that provision. The report was not acted upon in either house today.

Bigelow Decision Affirmed.

The supreme court today affirmed the Massachusetts judgment by which Albert S. Bigelow, of Boston, was directed to pay the Old Dominion Copper Mining and Smelting company $2,100,000 as secret promoters. The suits growing out of the transactions have attracted more attention than any corporation case in the last decade.

The supreme court of the United States today declined to grant a new trial to Chester S. Jordan, the actor, who was convicted of having murdered his wife. Her body was stuffed into a trunk. Jordan claimed that he was denied a constitutional trial, because one of the jurors who sat in his case was found to have been insane 24 hours after the verdict was handed in.

HIBBEN BARS ALL ATTACK ON TAFT

Roosevelt Will Not Talk in University Building at Princeton.

LAST DAY STRENUOUS

Newark, N. J., May 27.—This was another day of hard riding and fast talking for President Taft and Col. Roosevelt. Tomorrow New Jersey will instruct her 28 delegates to the national conventions and the last full day of the primary campaign was untilized by both candidates to its last hour.

Many other signs beside the meteor-like trips of the candidates made it apparent today that the state was at the crisis of a big political battle. The billboards which stretch for miles along the railroad lines out of New York flame with political posters. The newspapers are full of political advertisements, and campaign literature has been distributed by the ton.

BOLAND DENIES TRAPPING JUDGE

Declares Archbold Did His Own Getting Into Trouble.

HE IS CROSS-EXAMINED

Washington, May 27.—William P. Boland, the Scranton, Pa., coal operator, who is responsible for some of the charges against Judge Robert W. Archbald, of the court of commerce, was recalled by the judiciary committee today for cross-examination. Mr. Boland stated that he first formed a suspicion that the judge was using his office for the railroads when Judge Archbald ordered that he proceed in his law suit with John W. Peale, of Scranton, "forthwith."

Attorney Worthington, representing Judge Archbald, produced the court's order. It directed the plaintiff to take testimony for thirty days and gave Boland unlimited time to prepare his case. Boland replied that he knew nothing about the order; that the judge had given him orders through his attorney and in the presence of a witness and no written order was entered. With regard to the $500 note which E. J. Williams took to Boland to be discounted for Judge Archbald, Mr. Worthington wanted to know if Williams had said that Boland might have saved the costs in the Peale case if he had discounted the note."

The witness said that Williams said, "It might do him some good" and that "it would help him with the judge" to discount the note.

Boland retracted some the statements against Judge Archbald which he made to the attorney general. He said he had not refreshed his memory and was unprepared when he made the statement. He admitted that it might contain mistakes.

Mr. Boland protested against the insinuation that he had "trapped" Judge Archbald. "Whatever trouble Judge Archbald is in he has got into himself," he said.

NEW THEATER PROSPECTS.

Two Sites Being Considered by Kalamazoo Playhouse Owner.

It is expected that contracts for the new $50,000 theater to be erected in Fort Wayne will be signed Tuesday or Wednesday. The new playhouse is to be built and operated by Gottlie Rosenbaum, of Kalamazoo, acting for the Sullivan-Considine syndicate of New York.

The theater will either be erected on the Oliver Hanna property at the southwest corner of Wayne and Clinton streets or on the A. L. Randall property at Jefferson and Calhoun streets. Both sites are being considered by the company. The Sulivan-Considine syndicate plays variety at 10 and 20 cents. This aggregation operated five theaters in Michigan and others in different parts of the country.

TWO START FOR PRISON.

Man and Woman Off to Serve Life Imprisonment.

Hillsboro, Mo., May 27.—Sheriff Bechler, of Jefferson county, departed for Jefferson City this morning with Joseph Seidel and Mrs. Annie Hunning, convicted respectively, of murder and complicity in connection with the killing of Mrs. Hunting's husband. Both were sentenced to life imprisonment in the Jefferson City penitentiary.

RACING MONSTERS QUALIFY FOR BIG SPEEDWAY EVENT

Cars Win Place in Elimination Trials With Bruce-Brown in National Showing Fastest Time.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 27.—Fourteen out of twenty-six cars entered in the Memorial day 500 mile race at the speedway, qualified in the first session of the speed elimination trials today. One lap of two miles and a half in two minutes was demanded by the rules. Only one car failed in the final time, Romine's continental, and it will have two other chances at the second session. De Palma, in a Mercedes, made the fastest lap, 1:44.62.

World famed pilots and a throng of mechanicians were busy at the pits alongside the speedway track early today grooming the twenty-six monster motors that were to be tried for speed in the qualification tests. Each entrant will be required to show speed at the rate of 75 miles an hour in one lap of the oval, which is two and one-half miles.

Engines of Enormous Strength.

As the race is for stock cars and a maximum piston displacement of 600 cubic inches is permitted, the makers of American, German, French and Italian cars that have entered have set in engines of enormous strength as assurance that the speed test will be met.

It was expected that all the entrants would be able easily to slide through under the limit, which calls for an average rate of going of a mile in 48 seconds. Ray Harroun, in his Marmon, won last year's 500 miles in 402.8; an average speed of 74.61 miles an hour.

Starter Fred Wagner let Tetsaff's Red Fiat go first and it flashed around the course in 1:46. Merz, in a Stutz, got through 1:55, and Zengel, in a second Stutz, went one second better.

Let Motors Out to Limit.

Eager to outdo each other the pilots let the enormous motors out to the limit and they went at tire-scorching speed. Dishrow put his Case over in 1:57.55 and Anderson's Stutz went the distance in 1:51.20.

Bob Burman cut under his rivals by sending his through in 1:42.

As fast as they could be called the big cars were sent into the test and shot safely under the two minute limit. Endicott (Schacht) made 1:51.70; Marquette (McFarland) 1:55.26; Jenkins (White) 1:51.35; Knight (Lexington) 1:58.34.

Romine's Continental failed to qualify on the first trial and was taken to the pit. The time was withheld, but it was announced the car would get two more chances.

Mason in a Lozier went around in 1:52.64, and Liesaw (Marquette-Buick) in 1:56.11. Burman's time was corrected from 1:42 to 1:47 and De Palma scored highest when his big gray Mercedes sang around the track in 1:44.62.

Frazier's Firestone-Columbus went the distance in 1:56.42 and further trials were deferred into afternoon.

Bruce-Brown Still Faster.

David Bruce-Brown, in a National, brought the crowd to its feet, cheering when he made the round in 1:41.75 at the opening of the afternoon session. It was the best time of the day so far, an average of 88½ miles an hour.

Dawson, also driving a National, followed Bruce-Brown and pounded out 1:44.49, second best time. Joe Horan marked up 1:51.82 for his Lozier.

Herr got a third National around in 1:45.95, and Spencer Wishert's Mercedes did the circuit in 1:47.20. The Continental's crank shaft was broken, it was announced, and the entry was withdrawn.

ST. LOUIS MAKING SPLENDID EFFORT

Big Balloon After Long Distance Trophy is Sighted.

NOW OVER MISSOURI

Chanute, Kan., May 27.—A balloon believed to be the St. Louis, which ascended 735 feet last night at San Antonio, Texas, in an effort to lift the Lahm cup for long distance, passed over here at 10 o'clock this morning traveling rapidly northeastward. The St. Louis carried Albert von Hoffman and Captain John Berry. The distance from San Antonio to Chanute is about 592 miles.

PASSES OVER SWEET SPRINGS.

Sweet Springs, Mo., May 27.—A balloon believed to be the St. Louis passed over here at 12.10 p. m. at a height of approximately 5,000 feet. It was sailing at about 45 miles an hour in a northeasterly direction. Sweet Springs is 150 miles northeast of Chanute.

REBELS CAPTURE TORREON.

Juarez, Mex., May 27.—Messages were received here today from rebel headquarters at Chihuahua announcing the capture of Torreon by rebels under General Arguemdo. Details were lacking.

FRENCH REPULSE ATTACK BY MOORS

Tribesmen Assault City of Fez—Beaten Off With Heavy Losses.

GET INSIDE WALLS

Fez, by Wireless to Tangier, May 27.—A strong body of Moors made another fierce attack on this city this morning. Some got inside the walls but were dispersed or killed.

The French lost one officer killed and 30 soldiers killed or wounded. The Moorish casualties were heavy.

ANOTHER IS DENIED.

Paris, May 27.—A report is published here that 10,000 Moors have made an attack on the French camp at Merada near the Algerian frontier, that the French troops lost 150 killed and 380 wounded and that the Moors were repulsed, leaving 1,800 dead and 3,000 wounded on the field.

The ministry of war later issued a denial of the report.

Wireless reports received at the ministry of war from Fez say that another attack on that city was silenced by the French artillery.

A force of 5,000 further French troops is to be rushed forward to protect the route between Rabat and Fez.

The Story of Mr. Bryce

Through the keyhole.

NOT a little interest and excitement prevailed at the Anthony hotel a few days ago over a signature placed on the register by a guest. This is the name:

"W. J. Bryce, London, England."

The interest and excitement did not grow about the signature itself, but because it had been placed there by a man who had been a passenger on the Titanic and was one of the few men aboard to reach New York safely. Such, at least, was the story in the lobby of the hotel. The rumor floated out through the doors of the Anthony into the street, and finally turned three or four corners and floated into The Sentinel office. As far as it is known, Fort Wayne has yet entertained no Titanic survivor, and there would be interest, of course, in the personal narrative of "One Who Was There." A member of the reportorial staff was, therefore, dispatched immediately to the hotel. Sure enough, there was the signature, written in a hand which seemed to belong to a man who was still just a little quivery over his experience that terrible night.

It was ascertained that Mr. Bryce was in his room. The news man dispatched himself thither without delay. He rapped. Mr. Bryce responded, asking what was wanted.

"I want to see you a moment," said the reporter through the keyhole.

"What about?"

"I want to ask you to tell me about your experience on the Titanic."

"The Titanic!"

"Yes, sir—we thought it would make an interesting story if you would tell us your personal experience that night and—"

"Why, look here, man," said Mr. Bryce, "I wasn't on the Titanic. I haven't seen the Atlantic ocean for years."

"Then there is nothing to say of your experience on the water?"

"No, not on the water, but you might tell 'em of an interesting experience of mine in the water—I'm taking a bath, or will be taking one as soon as you go away."

The reporter went.

It appears that Mr. Bryce is a breeder of blooded dogs and has been in this country a number of years. He was on the way to the state of Washington to make some important purchases for his kennels.

WEBB IS HELD ON SHOOTING CHARGE

Fort Wayne Young Man is Under Arrest in Chcago.

ONE VICTIM MAY DIE

Chicago, May 27.—Otis Webb, formerly a resident of Fort Wayne, is under arrest here, held to await the outcome of the injury to William Graves, who was shot early Sunday morning when detectives attempted to arrest Webb.

Webb is a cook and when he started out Saturday night he carried a revolver with him, as his fellow employes had been talking to him about hold-ups until he was afraid he would be robbed. Detectives Cronson and Torpy met him at Wentworth avenue and Nineteenth street and on account of his suspicious actions attempted to arrest him. He drew his revolver and began to shoot. Graves was shot in the chest and may die. Stanley Carabaro and William Coleman were also shot, the former sustaining a broken arm and the latter was shot in the right foot.

He ran, but the officers overtook him and sent him in. He stated that he didn't know the men who approached him were detectives and that he began to fire because he believed they were footpads intent on robbing him. He was under the influence of liquor at the time of his arrest.

The man under arrest in Chicago is a son of George Webb, 613 Barr street, and is a paroled convict from the Jeffersonville reformatory. Between the ages of eight and fifteen years he was at the Plainfield industrial school because he was incorrigible.

After his return in 1908 he robbed the John C. Figel saloon, on Wells street, and was sentenced to from two to fourteen years at Jeffersonville. He was paroled two months ago from the reformatory and after a short time here he went to Chicago in violation of the conditions under which he was released and he promised to remain in the state. His father and Attorney C. B. Aldrich went to Chicago today to arrange for his defense. If he is not convicted there he will be turned over to the Indiana authorities to be sent back for the balance of his term.

HAD QUACK SCHEME.

"Drop in the Eye" Medicine Man Made Fortune.

Detroit, May 27.—Prof. Henry Samuels, a mail order doctor, who makes $12,000 a month selling a solution of sugar, salt and water as a cure-all, was arrested here at the instance of Prosecutor Shepard. He had an office establishment requiring twenty-five stenographers and a number of business assistants. Samuels removed his headquarters from Wichita, Kan., on March 1. He admitted that he had been arrested several times, "but I always was acquitted," he added.

No matter what the disease is, the instructions which accompany each bottle of Samuels' medicine are to "drop it in the eye," he setting forth the theory that the eyes are the centres of all nerves and any remedy applied to them will cure any disorder whatever. The stuff is put up in two-ounce bottles, which are sold at $5 each.

MULE KICKS SPEECH BACK.

Boy Examines Hoofs and They Effect a Cure.

Philadelphia, May 27.—Michael Lozika, seven has had his speech kicked back by a mule. Several months ago the youngster fell, the injury depriving him of his power to talk. A few days ago the boy was playing in a lot where a mule had been turned out to graze.

Michael decided to examine the hoofs of the mule's hindfeet. Suddenly the mule kicked out. Mrs. Lozika saw her son go hurtling through the air. She rushed to him expecting to find he had been killed. Instead, he greeted her with:

"Hello, ma, I ain't hurted!"

"Say fore!"

"I haven't swung but twice."

"Yes, I know, but that ain't the kind of a four; it's f-o-r-e."

"What in blazes you want to say that for?"

"To warn the people in front of you and so the caddie will watch the ball."

"What's the caddie?"

"That little fellow over there with the bag on his shoulder?"

"The bat bag?"

"No, no, no; this is not a baseball game; this is golf."

"That kid think he'll ever get this ball when I hit it?"

"Shouldn't wonder."

"Why, I can take one of these clubs and knock that ball over in Aboite township. Got any more of 'em?"

"Yes, yes, got half a bushel of them. Go ahead and address the ball."

"Howdy."

"No; like this:"

This is part of what Arthur F. Hall passed through trying to teach President Frank L. Taft, of the Fort Wayne Country club, the mysteries of golf on the club's links on Saturday, which was opening day.

President Taft took a swing at the ball and plowed up a patch of perfectly good sod. He swung again, hit the ball squarely and it didn't go half as far as he thought it would.

This was the experience of forty beginners who were out at the invitation of the club directors and which resulted in the biggest day in the history of the club. There were eighty-five players on the links during the afternoon.

The object is to revive interest, or rather to waken new interest among club members who have never played golf, and on July 20 the event will be repeated and in the meantime it is likely that a beginners' day for women will be held.

But to return to the president of the club.

After he had torn up some more sod he was informed he was playing in a two ball foursome, that he had foozled on the fair green and that he must learn to properly use the brassie, cleek, midiron, mashie, niblick and putter, that he must know a bunker from a base on balls and a huzzard from three strikes before he could ever expect to attain any proficiency.

He labored over the course and really enjoyed it and when he returned to the clubhouse and sipped his lemonade he confided to one of the instructors that someone ought to translate the game into English. He said he had had no trouble learning the game itself, but didn't think he would ever be able to talk it.

Golf is the most fascinating game on earth. If you don't believe it, ask any enthusiast. The laymen can't see much fun in chasing a small ball over a fifty-acre tract of land just to put it in ten or fifteen holes, but it doesn't take him long to learn that it is real sport, that it is invigorating and entertaining, and that the humdrum of every day life and the business cares of a day can easily be forgotten in a golf match.

The course is in fine condition and the members of the club have determined to make the game the interesting feature of the club's program for the summer.

ISLAND TRADE IS ON THE INCREASE

But Philippine Natives Are Hampered by Politics.

MR. SMITH LECTURES

Warren DePre Smith, Ph. D., of the department of mines in the Philippines in a lecture Saturday night at the Commercial club declared that natives of the islands are hampered by unsettled political conditions, and that the great curse resting upon the islands for many years is due directly to political manipulation. A large assemblage listened attentively to the lecture which was illustrated by stereopticon views.

"The natives have been kicked about by both parties," said Mr. Smith. "The majority of people in America are constantly charging that it costs the United States large sums of money to maintain the islands, when, in fact, the islands are self supporting. Trade in the islands in 1910 was enormous, largest by far than that of any time during the three hundred years of Spanish rule, and trade will continue to increase. Five million pesetos ($12,500,000) is appropriated annually for the erection of schools and for educational purposes."

Mr. Smith cited as evidence that the Philippines are doing something along the line of industry, the fact that two of the biggest steamship companies in the east have changed their terminals from Hong Kong, China, to Manila, and declared that when it is understood that Hong Kong, in point of tonnage going in and out of her ports, is the largest trading center in the east, the significance of the change is realized.

Mr. Smith is a son-in-law of Hon. T. E. Ellison, of this city.

NO SEAT, NO GIRL.

Chicago, May 27.—Henry J. Lynch, chief probation officer of the juvenile court, in the hope of preventing elopements by motorcycles, addressed a plea to the city council asking that the members legislate the rear seat from the machine.

Mr. Lynch is of the opinion that many girls are persuaded to take trips that they would not take if their better judgment prevails, and he believes that if the second seat is removed from the motorcycle the lovelorn youth will be unable to take his sweetheart to the nearest marriage market.

DO NOT GET CHAIRS.

Pittsburg, May 27.—Captain of Detectives Michael S. Hanley, who was recently appointed head of the bureau and at once promised reforms, has put in effect one of them, intended to bring about clearer and quicker thinking. He ordered all chairs out of the detectives' rooms and posted regulations that sleuths must stand when on duty. The public will also stand when talking to the captain or his men, as he thinks other folks have as much need of clear and quick thinking as his subordinates.

But—his own fine, comfortable swivel chair is in its accustomed place.

HIBBINS BARS ALL ATTACK ON TAFT

Col. Roosevelt started from Oyster Bay early this morning for what may be his last day of campaigning before the national convention unless he decides to go to South Dakota. It was said that the colonel might visit the latter state if President Taft spoke there, but that the president's intentions were unknown.

Col. Roosevelt's itinerary included a number of large towns in the central part of the state, and tonight he is expected to wind up at Princeton and speak from a balcony of Princeton Inn. The selection of this rostrum, it was said, was due to the refusal of President Hibben, of Princeton, to let any of the university buildings be used for the political meeting unless nothing derogatory was said about President Taft, who was the institution's guest recently at President Hibben's inauguration.

President Taft will continue his campaign up to the very hour the primary polls open at 1 p. m. tomorrow. Today he started from New York, where he spent Sunday and last night, for a tour of the towns along the Atlantic coast. His day's work will end at Atlantic City, where he will spend the night.

Gov. Wilson may make his last speech before the primaries tonight at his hotel in Princeton. The Woodrow Wilson club of that university plans a torchlight parade which will march to the governor's house and call him to his front porch.

KEEPS AFTER MR. TAFT.

Colonel Roosevelt Does Not Let Down in His Criticisms.

Morristown, N. J., May 27.—The last day of Col. Roosevelt's campaign in New Jersey began with a speech in Morristown, in which the former president took up the assertion that during his administration there had been extravagant expenditure of public funds.

"Recently Mr. Taft has dwelt upon the fact that my administration had left a deficit," said the colonel. "He can say that by taking only one year and omitting the other six and one-half. During my administration we piled up a surplus of between $200,000,000 and $300,000,000. In fact, we had almost too much money and we paid a large part of the money used on the Panama canal without a bond issue.

"The other day Mr. Taft said that the national committee would do him justice," Col. Roosevelt continued. "I want the people to do me justice, and that illustrates the difference between us. I appeal to the people and he appeals to the national committee, with the expectation that it will misrepresent the people, and I appeal to the people to control themselves. Remember the national committee was elected not by the people, but by the politicians and Mr. Taft appeals to the national committee elected four years ago and I appeal to the people in this year of 1912."

FRENCH POODLE AS MASCOT.

Fancy Dog Is Handed Up to President on New Jersey Trip.

Long Branch, N. J., May 27.—At Matawan, where President Taft made his second speech of the day, he appealed to the voters to come to the primaries tomorrow. "I don't expect you all to vote for me," he said, "but I hope you will vote and show your interest as American citizens in this critical time in our history. Mr. Roosevelt is not talking a great deal about the third term now," said the president, "because he does not desire to emphasize it, but I appeal from his position now to his position in 1904 and 1908. Then he was in the calm that follows victory at the polls. Now he is in hot pursuit of a third term."

At Redbank a man handed up a French poodle to the president. Across its chest was a silk banner with "New Jersey Mascot" written on it.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

PECULIAR CLAUSE PUT IN FRANCHISE

Uniondale Displays Its Feeling of Hatred to the Chicago and Erie Railroad.

Uniondale, Ind., May 27.—Due to the feeling existing in Uniondale against the Erie railroad because of the method used in ejecting the C., B. & C. railroad from its property, the town board there has injected into the franchise granted to the C., B. & C. the stipulation that the contract shall be null and void if the short line is ever sold to the Erie.

The C., B. & C. officials did not desire the provision in the franchise and objected to its use until it was seen the townspeople held the Erie in such contempt it would be useless to thwart their plans. Accordingly the franchise was drawn up, and it is probably the only one of its kind in America where a community cites its hatred for the methods of a big corporation by thus granting a provisional franchise to its competitor.

No difficulty whatever was experienced in obtaining the franchise. The town board readily granted the contract and no exactions are required of the C., B. & C. A better route than was formerly occupied by the road was obtained.

Although the C., B. & C. has about two and one-half miles of track to relay, Receiver J. C. Curtis says normal services will be resumed a week from next Sunday if the moving of buildings from the new right-of-way does not cause much delay.

WAITING FOR HIS MOTHER.

Prominent Railroad Man at Huntington Died Before Her Arrival.

Huntington, Ind., May 27.—While awaiting the arrival of his mother from Boston, Mass., George T. Menish, one of the oldest and most prominent engineers on the Erie railroad, died at his home on First street Saturday, surrounded by his immediate family. During his illness Mr. Menish was unable to leave the house but one time, and that was when he made a short trip to the office. Mr. Menish was trainmaster at the Chicago terminal, and later foreman of engines for the Erie, and up to a short time ago was supervisor of locomotive operation, when he was compelled to give up office work on account of his health.

MEMORIAL DAY AT AUBURN.

Auburn, Ind., May 27.—The memorial sermon, delivered by Rev. A. B. Garman at the Evangelical Lutheran church, was well attended by members of the G. A. R. and the W. R. C., who marched from their hall to the church in a body.

A Harmless Way to Darken the Hair

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish —A Remedy for All Hair Troubles.

DON'T HAVE GRAY HAIR

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially prematureness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is thin or turning gray, get a bottle of Hair Remedy and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the this remedy from your druggist today, and see what it will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

CROWDED TO LIMIT IS COURT DOCKET

Hartford City Grand Jury Has Lots of Work Investigating Criminal Cases.

Hartford City, Ind., May 27.—The June term of the circuit court convened today and will be in session for five weeks, a number of important cases being on the docket for trial. The grand jury also began its sessions today. It will have a busy time as there are numerous law violations it will be called upon to investigate.

Witnesses in the Harry Leonard murder case have been subpoenaed for Tuesday and Wednesday. It is expected that indictments will be returned against Fred and Nelson Edwards, the two brothers, who are held in jail charged with killing Leonard whose death resulted from a blow received in a drunken brawl in which seven men were implicated.

The grand jury also will investigate the charge of blackmail against Herman Bourke and Valley Stout, under bond to appear for trial for an alleged attempt to bilk L. G. Wilhems, a local saloonkeeper out of $200.

It is expected that the grand jury will look into the charges that gambling has been going on openly in Hartford City for several months and also other law violations. The June term of court will be crowded to the limit and it is probable that the Leonard murder case will not come to trial, the docket already being full.

5 DEAD; 10 HURT IN AUTO MISHAPS

Frightful Record of Accidents in Indiana on Sunday.

HIT BY INTERURBAN

SUNDAY AUTOMOBILE MISHAPS IN STATE.

Morgan county man, wife and daughters of two business men killed, and son of victims injured when interurban car strikes automobile near Centerton, Ind.

Medaryville (Ind.) man attempts to kill himself after auto goes into ditch near Rensselaer, killing girl companion and slightly injuring six others.

Automobile, speeding at high rate, overturns near Anderson, injuring Dana resident dangerously and two companions slightly.

Martinsville, Ind., May 27.—Four persons were killed at Centerton, near here, late yesterday when their automobile went dead on the tracks of the Martinsville division of the Indianapolis, Terre Haute & Eastern Traction company and was hit by a car. The automobile was thrown into a ditch and wrecked. The dead:

W. D. BROWN, 53.
MRS. W. D. BROWN, 53.
MISS BESSIE BAILEY, 17.
MISS BESSIE CURE, 17.

All live in Martinsville. Eda Brown, aged 19, son of the dead couple, was driving the automobile and owes his life to the fact that he jumped when he saw he was unable to get the machine started. He was severely injured and was carried into a nearby house by passengers from the interurban car, who summoned physicians from this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown and the two girls were badly crushed when the southbound car hit the automobile and they were thrown into a ditch under the wreckage. They were all killed almost instantly.

Crossing a Death Trap.

Mr. Brown was a wealthy retired farmer. The bodies were brought here. The accident occurred on a sharp curve near the Centerton postoffice and it is almost impossible to see a car approaching from either direction. Only a few weeks ago a boy was killed on the crossing.

Miss Bailey was the daughter of William Bailey, who is connected with a sanitarium here and is well known throughout the state. Miss Cure was the daughter of W. A. Cure, an undertaker here. She was the organist at a Sunday school here and the last song she played yesterday morning was "We Shall See the King Some Day." The party was on a pleasure ride when the accident occurred.

Girl's Death Most Tragic.

The death of Miss Cure was the most tragic. She was riding in the rear seat of the automobile. Apparently she was caught in the top of the automobile. The latter and a part of the rear seat was pulled under the traction car and with Miss Cure in the wreckage was dragged more than a quarter of a mile before the car could be stopped.

When Motorman Salmon threw the brake it broke. The trolley was thrown from the car, but the crew could not stop it. When a wreck car came it was necessary to lift the front of the car before the mangled body of Miss Cure could be removed.

GIRL KILLED; SIX INJURED.

Medaryville Man Attempts Suicide When Companion Dies.

Lafayette, Ind., May 27.—Enola Retherford, aged 18, of Lafayette, was killed and two girls and three men were slightly injured in an automobile accident near Rensselaer Sunday afternoon. The Retherford girl, May Jolley and Rose Cooper, all of this city, went to Monon yesterday morning, where they met Charles Frank, John Ballard and Francis Smith, all of Medaryville. In the automobile owned by Frank, they started for a camp on the Kankakee river near Medaryville.

Seated on Frank's lap, May Jolley was driving the car at high speed, when it suddenly swung off the road and turned over in a five-foot ditch. The Retherford girl and Smith were pinned under the car and the former's head was crushed. The others were thrown out and escaped only with bruises. The girl's body was taken to Rensselaer, where a coroner's inquest was held.

After the six were taken to Rensselaer Ballard procured a revolver and attempted to shoot himself. He crouched down among the machines in a garage and pulled the trigger twice, but there were only two loads in the revolver and before it was discharged Dr. M. D. Guinn, who was in the garage at the time and noticed the man's queer actions, overpowered him and wrested the revolver from his hands.

AUTO OVERTURNS; THREE HURT.

Dana (Ind.) Man Dangerously Injured When Car Goes Into Ditch.

Anderson, Ind., May 27.—Morgan Harris, of Dane, Ind., was dangerously hurt last night when the automobile in which he was riding turned over two miles east of this city. Harris was riding with Stanton Nichol and James Simpson in a car driven and owned by the latter. According to witnesses to the accident the machine was going at a high rate of speed when the driver lost control and headed the car into a ditch. It turned over twice, throwing Harris into a telephone pole.

Simpson and Nichol were not seriously injured, but it is feared by physicians that Harris may be injured internally. Several ribs were broken. The men were en route to the Interstate factory at Muncie, where some alterations were to have been made on the car. The car was almost totally demolished in the accident.

The Report on the Maumee River.

Washington dispatches on Saturday carried the information that the army engineers had reported adversely to the canalization of the Maumee river between Toledo and Fort Wayne, and this gave rise to the impression in some quarters that the projected deep waterway from Toledo to Chicago by way of Fort Wayne had received its death blow, when in point of fact nothing of the sort occurred, and apprehension for the safety of the canal project was due entirely to a misrepresentation of the significance of the dispatch.

The canalization of the Maumee river between this city and Toledo as an individual piece of inland waterway construction has been in no sense an issue since very early in the local consideration of the subject of waterways. The larger idea of a waterway extending from Lake Erie to Lake Michigan came quickly to the fore, and it was of a scope that made it undoubtedly national in importance. It is to this larger end that Fort Wayne and other cities along the route have been working, and the canalization of the Maumee river was suggested merely as affording a line of least resistance over something like a hundred miles of the distance between Toledo and Chicago. In the summary of the report of Colonel John Millis, of the army engineering corps, printed by The Sentinel a few weeks ago, was this statements:

"No demand for river improvement solely with the object of improving the Maumee alone has been heard from any source. The relations of the Maumee river, if improved for navigation purposes, to the enlarged Erie canal and the proposed waterway from Lake Erie to Lake Michigan were the principal and in fact almost the only features of the subject discussed by those interested at the various conferences and public hearings that have been held in preparation for this report."

It will be quite apparent that traffic between Fort Wayne and Toledo alone would be wholly inadequate to justify the expense of canalizing the Maumee, but the lake-to-lake canal is quite another matter. The survey to determine its practicability is a practical certainty. The lake-to-lake canal idea has received a good many severe raps and met a multitude of discouragements, but this later report is not one of them. The lake-to-lake canal project will win because it is of such vital necessity to American commerce that the country must ultimately have it.

The efforts of the East Side and Maumee River Civic Improvement association to enlist the school children in the campaign for city beautification will be watched with uncommon interest, not only because it is the first comprehensive effort of this sort yet attempted in Fort Wayne, but from a conviction that it is a step along right lines. Indications thus far promise richly, for the children of the east side are enthusiastically taking hold of the study of lawns, flowers, trees and shrubbery and their relation to the city beautiful. It is entirely safe to predict that the result will be reflected in practical results that will be creditable to the east side and an example to other sections of Fort Wayne.

THE FOLLY OF TRESPASSING.

(Indianapolis Star.)

General Claims Attorney Frank V. Whiting, of the New York Central lines, has lately issued a statement in pamphlet form treating of the trespass nuisance as it exists in this country, showing how thousands annually yield their lives because of some phase of neglect or misjudgment. It is a most interesting observation of a subject which gets entirely too little consideration from the average person. For years the life toll along railway thoroughfares has far exceeded what it would have been had any display of foresight asserted itself, and, after the grewsome mortality table has been scanned, one marvels that laws along the line suggested by this railroad official have not long since been enacted.

Late authorities claim that there are 500,000 tramps in America the year round. Of this number the majority steal rides on trains, and each year a certain percentage forfeit their lives because of the risks they assume in jumping on and off moving trains or riding trucks or "blind baggage" heads. But the greater number of persons killed from trespassing were not tramps; indeed, persons from every walk of life are to be found each year in some fatal accident because of entering upon the properties of the railways. In the fiscal year 1912 a total of 10,396 people met death in railroad disasters, and of this number 5,284 were guilty of trespassing.

Included in this vast army were ministers, chemists, actors, soldiers, sailors, students, children and tradesmen of all kinds. That intoxication and suicide contributed heavily to the grim total is admitted. But a vast number of the unfortunates were persons living near railroads, and, because of this close relationship, had grown to regard the trains as creatures of punctuality and entirely void of harm. It is this condition, together with the desire so many have of "walking the tracks" that gives the grand total such proportions. That persons disregard warnings in way of signals posted or from employes, is to be recognized everywhere. Farmers accustomed to the belief that trains passing their premises at certain times will be on schedule many times enter upon the tracks with disastrous results.

Mr. Whiting rightly advocates the enactment of laws which will strictly regulate or entirely prohibit useless trespassing upon the properties of railroads. It is characteristic of Americans to declare for remedial legislation after such frightful happenings as the sinking of a Titanic or the destruction of an Iroquois. Studying the table of deaths from roads, each year shows a condition far worse than any other agency that destroys human life. It has been suggested that congress pass a law to forbid trespassing upon interstate lines. This may be of signal benefit, but inasmuch as trespassers come from all walks of life, the situation could be best handled as a local problem, where cities and counties take some action that will put an end to the needless killing of so many thousands every year.

PRESS COMMENT ON THE OHIO PRIMARIES.

Danger.

Boston Record: "However much conviction may insist that President Taft is the better fitted for nomination and election, there is a very practical danger in this Ohio vote, and Mr. Taft's friends cannot be blind and deaf to it."

Overconfident.

Baltimore Sun: "Feeling perhaps overconfident of a victory in his own state, the president declared that the result in Ohio would be decisive. Nevertheless, he is still appealing to the people, and he will not abandon the fight."

Single Handed.

New York Tribune: "Mr. Taft comes out of the Ohio contest with no loss of personal prestige. He did his part manfully and ungrudgingly, and it is no discredit to him that he could not prevail single handed against an opposition so skilfully managed and so lavishly financed."

One Ohio Opinion.

Cleveland Leader: "Theodore Roosevelt, fighting the battle of the people, has swept Ohio. President Taft, standing for outworn traditions and reactionary policies, has been overwhelmingly beaten by his own party in his own state."

Personal Abuse.

Washington Star: "Misrepresentation and prejudice and personal abuse directed at the president have shown power in the president's own state."

Judicious Persons.

Philadelphia Record: "Many judicious persons will think it a credit to the voters of Ohio that the greater part of them refused to take part in the preference scrimmage."

Native Son.

Washington Times: "Ohio has answered, and state pride has done a bigger, nobler, bolder thing than to stand by the native son."

Crisis.

New York Evening Post: "That the result in Ohio is to place the republican party face to face with a grave crisis must be plain to the dullest intelligence."

Vote of a Minority.

Philadelphia Press: "In Ohio as elsewhere, it was a light vote—the vote of a minority—that determined the result."

Vicious Fight.

Baltimore Evening Sun: "That is really what makes Ohio more important than all the rest. It comes at the end of a vicious fight."

Rt. Rev. Bishop Alerding celebrated solemn pontifical vespers Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Later he delivered a sermon and administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class numbering 119. This number is inclusive of the ninety-two first communicants, seven men and ten women converts.

GRACE REFORMED CHURCH.

Double Anniversary Services Were Held Sunday.

The Sunday services at the Grace Reformed church were of a most interesting character, a double anniversary being celebrated—the twenty-ninth anniversary of the organization of the church in this city and the twenty-fourth anniversary of Rev. Dr. A. K. Zartman's pastorate in this city. Addresses were made in behalf of the different church organizations, by Elder S. W. Hills for the church, W. F. Close for the Sunday school and Mrs. Zartman for the women's societies.

One of the interesting features was the burning of the mortgage on the church, leaving the society free of debt. The church will purchase a new organ. For this purpose $775 was raised yesterday. The amount will be increased by $1,000, a campaign for that purpose having been started.

THREE OF FAMILY POISONED BY HAM

Justice Grabner and Children Suffer Illness at Rome City.

ALL BETTER TODAY

Justice of the Peace Henry Grabner, his daughter, Ida, and son, Henry, jr., experienced a close call from death Sunday at Rome City, when all three suffered from ptomaine poisoning, caused it is believed from eating minced ham contained in their picnic lunch basket. For a time their condition was serious. They were out on the island at Sylvan lake when sickness overtook them and it was with difficulty they were rushed to the hotel at Rome City, where they were given some relief from their suffering.

Squire Grabner's condition was not as serious as the others and he quickly recovered from the attack, but his son and daughter were critical for a time and were brought to Fort Wayne as quickly as possible and were attended by Dr. Harrod. They are much better today and all effects of the poison will be gone by tomorrow, according to the physician.

The three, with other friends went to Rome City early Sunday morning for a day's outing. In boats they went to the island to eat their lunch and spend the remainder of the day. The young man and woman partook heartily of the minced ham which is thought to have caused the poisoning. Both are very weak and were unable to leave their home at 2124 Maumee avenue.

His assailant had fled when pedestrians found Kimmer, who was removed to his home, where he died a few hours later without regaining consciousness.

Williams was arrested and will be charged with assault with intent to kill.

VENDERS TO PUT SIGNS ON WAGONS

Ordinance to Be Amended to Get Line on the Peddlers.

WATCHING THEM UP

At the request of the police department City Attorney H. G. Hogan has drafted an amendment to the license fee laws of the city under which all street venders must display signs on their wagons showing who operates them and giving the number.

Some of these venders, who make it a practice to buy old stock from the commission houses and repack it and offer it for sale have engaged old soldiers to go along with them and have been selling goods on a permit issued by the state. There is no way for the city to stop this, but they can be made to show some means of identification.

The amendment provides that they shall have the licenses ready at all times to show to any officer or citizen and the fact that a vender carries a soldier permit will not excuse him from arrest unless the man to whom it is issued can show that he bought the stock with his own money and is really the bona fide owner of the business.

Notes of the City Hall.

An ordinance is in course of preparation to fix a penalty for tieing horses to ornamental lamp posts and fire plugs.

This is the last week for renewing market stand rentals and those who now hold stands will be compelled to pay their fees at once or have their places turned over to other applicants.

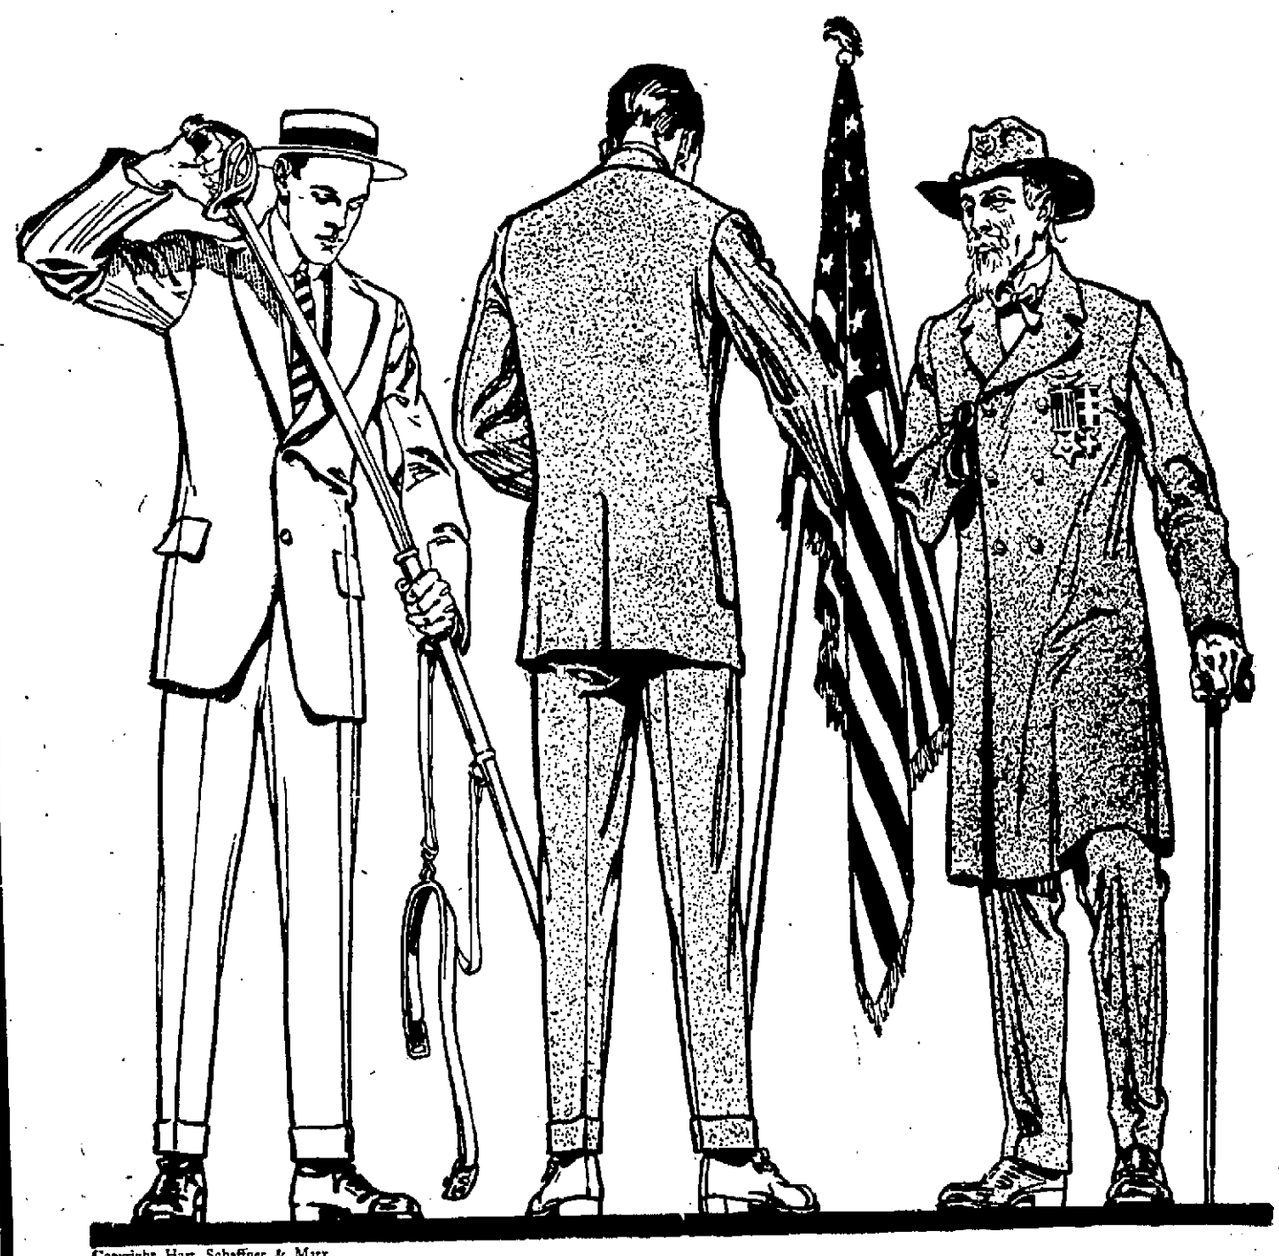
Next Thursday, Decoration Day, Our Store Closed All Day



Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

NOWADAYS very few of us are called on to die for our country, or for any great cause. The main thing is---Do we live for it? Sometimes it's really a greater achievement to live for a thing than to die for it.

Now you may think this talk and this patriotic anniversary of Decoration Day has nothing to do with the clothing business. But the big idea back of this celebration is the big idea that ought to be back of everything we do. The man who serves his community and his fellowmen by doing as well as he can, something that needs to be done, may be in a true sense, "living" for his community and for his fellows.

One thing that needs to be done is to make good clothes, and to sell them fairly.

Hart Schaffner & Marx, Hirsh Wickwire and L. System make good clothes as well as it can be done; and we're trying to sell them in the same way. It's a service; we want to think of it, and have you to think of it, as a service; a useful work.

We'll both profit by looking at it so.

Hart Schaffner & Marx suits as low as $15 is a real good service to you.

BUCKLEY QUITS ACTIVE SERVICE

Veteran Methodist Editor Long Known as the "Bishop-Maker."

ON THE FINAL GRIND

Minneapolis, Minn., May 27.—Dr. J. M. Buckley, New York, known in the Methodist Episcopal church as the "bishop maker," and for thirty-two years editor of one of the strongest church papers, today withdrew from active service.

Scheduled to adjourn next Wednesday the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which has been in session here since May 1, today began on a business grind, which probably will require morning, afternoon and night sessions.

Chief among matters to come up is the election of the editors of the strong church papers, of which the principal one is the Christian Advocate, of New York. For years Dr. J. M. Buckley, who is known in the church as the "Bishop Maker," has been in charge of the paper.

Another tangle which must be straightened is that occasioned by the election of missionary bishop W. F. Oldham, of India, to a position on the board of foreign missions, with headquarters in New York. The question now is before the judiciary committee, as to whether, as he already has been assigned to a place by the conference, he now can be transferred, and if so, what shall be done with reference to the election of a successor.

The question of "race bishop" also is to be discussed, especially in connection with providing another bishop for the negro churches of the south.

New Bishops Take Vows.

Eight bihops or general superintendents and two missionary bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church elected at the present session of the general conference yesterday afternoon took the vows of their office as follows:

General Superintendents—Homer C. Stuntz, New York; T. S. Henderson, Brooklyn; W. O. Shepard, Chicago; N. Luccock, Kansas City, Kansas; F. J. McConnell, president DePauw university, Green Castle, Ind.; F. D. Leete, Detroit, Mich.; R. J. Cooke, New York; W. P. Thirkield, president Howard university, a negro institution at Washington, D. C.

Missionary Bishops—John Wesley Robinson, Lucknow, India; W. P. Eveland, president seminary, Williamsport, Pa.

Hours before the auditorium was opened for the general public an immense crowd filled the street before the police guarded doors and passed the time in singing. When the curtain was raised at three o'clock, not a seat was vacant.

During the entire preliminary service in which bishop after bishop took part in the reading of the scriptures or of the ritual of consecration, there was a hush over the audience that permitted the tones of the speaker to penetrate every portion of the building. And when, on the final charge the consecrating bishops with hands laid upon the heads of the kneeling candidates urged them go to discharge their duties "that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear you may receive the never failing crown of glory through Jesus Christ our Lord," tears stood in many eyes.

POLICE INVESTIGATING.

John Sweeney and Howard Naylor were sent to police headquarters today and are being held while Detective Sergeant Pappert is trying to locate a couple of pairs of trousers and a coat stolen from a pressing establishment in the arcade. Entrance was gained by climbing over the transom.

LEAVE FOR INDIANAPOLIS.

Local Masonic Delegates on Grand Lodge Program.

William Geake, Will C. Geake, Albert E. Thomas, Jesse Macbeth, Leslie Tucker, Dr. C. C. Kimmel and Judge O'Rourke, leave today for Indianapolis to attend the annual meeting of the Indiana grand lodge, F. and A. M., which begins there tomorrow. William Geake, who is a member of the committee on jurisdiction and chairman of the ways and means committee left at noon to attend a pre-convention meeting this evening, and the others will leave tonight for the capital city.

Will C. Geake is chairman of the committee on distinguished dead, and will deliver the annual memorial address Tuesday.

CONGRESSMAN GRAY HERE.

Says Congress Will Be Delayed This Year.

Congressman Finly G. Gray, of Connersville, of the Sixth Indiana district, was in the city this morning for a few hours en route to his home from the east. In talking with friends here Mr. Gray stated that it is probable that congress will not adjourn until very late this year on account of the large amount of business still to be transacted.

Good music, good order and a new polished dance floor at the roof garden.

SOCIETY

Hardly a ripple stirred the calmness of society today and the events for the week are not of frequent occurrence. CLUB WOMEN WILL MEET.

Twelfth District Gathering of Women's Clubs in Kendallville, June 5.

Mrs. E. M. Wilson, chairman of the Twelfth district's Federation of Women's Clubs, anounces that the annual meeting of the district will be held in Kendallville on Wednesday, June 5. Each club in the district affiliated with the organization is expected to send at least two delegates to the convention. Each club president and two appointed delegates are the voters of the meeting to decide upon such business as shall come before the meeting and to elect officers for the new year. There will be two sessions, one at 10:30 in the morning and the other at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. A luncheon has been arranged for to be served at the hotel for fifty cents for each one. Reports will be heard from the different chairmen, including Mrs. Wilson's, of the district, and those from chairmen of the county. The speakers will be Mrs. Robert McCall, of Chicago, who is at the head of the civic department of the Illinois federation; Mrs. Felix McWhirter, of Indianapolis, president of the Indiana State Federation of Clubs, and Dr. Jessie D. Calvin, of this city. The keynote of the meeting is to be "Social Service" and the speakers will talk along that line. An open discussion will follow. A cordial invitation is extended to all club women of the city and county to attend the meeting, whether they are members of federated clubs or not. As it is necessary for the Kendallville club women to have something like accurate knowledge of how many will be there ladies who expect to attend the convention are requested to inform Mrs. A. J. Strauss, of Kendallville, to that effect.

HINTS TO THE HOSTESS.

The dinners of today are not composed of many dishes, but each must be different in composition and mode of cooking, and with a special touch of elegance in the way it is presented. Color is also studied, and it is considered as great a fault to serve two dishes containing food of the same color as it is to give twice poultry in the same menu.

The ingredients of the dishes, too, must be "in season." There is no merit in obtaining "forced" material, expensive "exotics" in the way of food, when each season of the year in turn provides its own delicacies. The lightest and daintiest of dishes now figure in the "sweets" course.

The souffle is a general favorite, and almost decadent in its refinement, now that it is frequently served with powdered and crystallized flower petals, and sent to table on a bed of the fresh flowers from which it takes its special name. Another favorite sweet is made with a large "brioche." The interior is scooped out and filled with stewed fruits of every description, served hot and covered with syrup of apricots. How to keep her cut flowers fresh is a matter that perplexes many hostesses.

Arrange only a small number of cut flowers in each vase, so that they may have plenty of water. Choose vases that can hold a large quantity of water, not those which run away to a point.

For short stalked or heavy headed flowers use flat dishes half filled with wet sand. For maiden hair fern a good idea is to spray water over it after it is arranged among the flowers. There is so much air among the water when it is sprayed on that it does not run off and leave the fronds dry, as it does when they are dipped in water.

If flowers are faded from being packed, a little ammonia put into the water in which the flowers are placed will revive them. Flowers that are intended to stand a good while after being cut should be gathered early in the morning and put into water as soon as cut. Always use a sharp knife.

Ferns may be immersed in water, stalks and fronds, for an hour or so. Cut flowers should be kept in the coolest part of the room. Change the water every second day, cutting off a small part of the flower's stalk at every change.

TO BE CONTINUED.

This is to announce that owing to the death of my husband, Charles W. Miner, I have assumed control of his business, known as Miner's Studio, located at 121 West Wayne street, Fort Wayne, Ind., and will continue the business the same as before.

Fortunately my late husband had had associated with him ever since he started in business in this city, Miss Estella Miner, who has had charge of the reception room and has attended to all the retouching and finishing; and John D. Albrecht, who for years has been at the head of the printing department and was always Mr. Miner's assistant in the operating room. For a long time he has been doing all the operating, owing to Mr. Miner's failing health.

Both of these people have become artists in their respective lines, and are thoroughly competent to continue the business in the same satisfactory manner that has been the means of building up the reputation that the studio enjoys.

I wish to take this occasion to thank the people of this city and surrounding cities for the patronage they have given this studio in the past and to solicit the continuance of same.

Assuring you that our patrons will always receive the very best of service and the latest things out in photography, I remain.

Very respectfully,
MARY S. MINER.

WHEN SHE READS HER GRADUATING ESSAY

While this frock is a bit elaborate on account of the silken sash, it is an attractive model and may be fashioned from inexpensive material.

This frock is made of very fine handkerchief linen, with a deep flounce on the bottom of the skirt. That skirt has the effect of an overskirt. This comes from the arrangement of a narrower flounce which is laced together with blue satin ribbon down the left side.

The blouse is made of all over embroidery and has a high collar. This model would be very pretty reproduced in plain organdie.

In the Kitchen and Pantry

Charlotte Russe.

Soak one-quarter of a package of gelatine in one-quarter of a cupful of cold water. Beat together two eggs, one-third of a cupful of sugar and one cupful of milk; stir over the fire in a double boiler until it is a thick custard. Add the soaked gelatine, take from the fire and stir until the gelatine has dissolved, then strain. Set aside until it begins to thicken, then add one teaspoonful of sherry wine, and whip hard. As it again begins to thicken add lightly one pint of heavy cream whipped to a firm froth and turn carefully through from the bottom for a moment or two. Have a mould lined with split lady fingers. Fill with the charlotte and garnish with candied cherries or other fruits.

Apple Cake.

Stir together one and one-half cupfuls of sugar and a large half cupful of butter. Add two eggs (beat the whites and yolks separately), a half cupful of sweet milk, two cupfuls of flour, one teaspoonful of cream of tartar sifted in the flour and a half-teaspoonful of soda dissolved in the milk. Put in cake tins, cover the top with sliced apples and bake. When done put melted butter or thick whipped cream over the apples. Sift powdered sugar over all.

Cream of Cabbage Soup.

This has a daintiness which we do not as a rule associate with the humble or cottage ganden cabbage. The cabbage must be well chopped as finely as possible. Just before serving the water should be poured off and an ounce of butter and a pint of milk thickened with a little flour should be added and brought to boiling point.

Dandelion Greens.

Pick over tender dandelion leaves, wash carefully through several waters, then throw into boiling, salted water and cook gently for fifteen minutes. Drain, turn cold water over them to chill and blanch. Drain again, chop fine, and when nearly ready to serve warm in a frying pan with butter, pepper and salt. Mound in a hot dish and slice two hard boiled eggs over them. Dandelion greens are also cooked with bacon. In this case cook well cleaned leaves ten minutes in boiling water, then drain and return to the saucepan with fresh water and a pound of bacon allowed to each half pound of dandelions. Add salt, pepper and a little onion, and boil gently until nearly dry. Serve the greens on a hot platter with the bacon.

Opening Dance, Tuesday, Robison Park.

LYRIC THEATER.

The offering at the Lyric today and night is "The Thirst for Gold," a western Imp, a great story well staged and acted. Evelyn Fields and Marian Livingstone are the vaudeville section of the program. Tuesday a special feature in H. Rider Haggard's famous "Jess," in two reels, a thrilling story of the Boer war. A real house is burned down that the producer could get a realistic fire scene.

Mary S. Miner, wife of the late Charles Miner, has assumed all control of his business, known as the Miner Studio, at 121 West Wayne street, and will continue the business the same as before. Miss Estella Miner, who has had charge of the reception room and attended all the retouching, and Mr. Jno. D. Albrecht, who for years has been at the head of the printing department, will remain with the studio.

LOYALTY TO WHAT IS RIGHT

Urged by Pastor Speakers on the Memorial Sunday Program.

HONOR TO THE HEROES

The memorial services held Sunday in this city in honor of the soldier and sailor dead of the nation, under the direction of the Sons of Veterans, at the Simpson M. E. church in the forenoon and at the Majestic theater in the afternoon, were largely attended and of an impressive and interesting character.

The members of the G. A. R. posts, the Union Veteran legion, the Women's Relief, the Ladies of the G. A. R., with the Sons of Veterans, the Spanish War Veterans and the Indiana National Guard, attended the morning service in a body, the sermon being preached by Rev. W. A. Griest, the pastor, seats being reserved in the center of the lower auditorium for them. In the march from the Elektron hall to the church the soldier procession was led by the Sons of Veterans drum corps.

Rev. Mr. Griest took for his theme, "A Prophet's Dream of Peace," and for his text the verses in Isaiah reading: "They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."

The pastor believed the time was coming when the words of the prophet of old would be true. "It may not be in our time," he said, "but it is coming because the Lord hath spoken it, universal peace, when the nations will catch the spirit of true democratic freedom and all the world will have learned the lesson of the brotherhood of man."

He paid a glowing tribute to the loyalty and bravery of our soldiers, dead and living, and said that peace offered just as many opportunities for bringing out true bravery as did war. Today the silver trumpet of the gospel calls to a holy life of struggle against temptation, intemperance, corruption and greed. There the triumphs of peace are won. The speaker's introductory to his sermon was as follows:

"War is a thorny tree. It casts a deadly shade where its shadows fall. But it has grown some splendid fruit, and there are some men with us today who dared to shake its thorny limbs and gather for us, their children, the joys of national unity and peace. But in these recent years the dream of the ancient prophet is coming true and the era dawns in which the world is to have a glorious national life without the toll of war.

"It may be because I was born at Gettysburg and the sacrifices of war are terribly real to me that I hate the thought of war; it may be because of the quaker blood in my veins that I believe in arbitration, but I would rather believe that it is because of catching some of the spirit of the Prince of Peace, whose natal song the angels sang, 'Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men.' But, whatever the reason, the dawn of the coming day of universal peace makes us all glad the war is over.

"They used to sing in the years long ago, when the war was in progress, 'We'll Hang Jaff Davis to a Sour Apple Tree,' but, thank God, that spirit of hate and malice has been buried and in this generation men of the north and the south bow before God and recognize loyal allegiance to but one flag, the flag of our country, the stars and stripes."

At the Majestic.

At the Majestic in the afternoon there were three addresses, the speakers being Rev. T. P. Potts, the superintendent of the Gospel Mission; Rev. C. O. Shirey, pastor of the Bethany Presbyterian church, and Rev. D. H. Guild, the pastor of the First M. E. church. The opening prayer was by Rev. W. A. Griest. The Dudley Buck quartet sang three selections and Miss Gertrude Seely rendered most beautifully and effectively a song-recitation entitled "Patriotic Medley." Charles P. Josse presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers.

"A Nation's Dark Hour" was the theme of Rev. Mr. Potts. His central thought was that it was the dark hours in the history of nations that brought men to prominence who are able to lead the people out of their difficulties and dangers and that these dark hours come in peace as well as in war. At all times, however, he said, the duty of men is to uphold the right, whether in war or in peace.

"In the early history of our country," he said, "thirteen colonies, restless and dissatisfied under the rule of another country, needed a man who was prepared to solve their problems; that man was found in George Washington. Had it not been for the dark hour in American history the rail splitter, the candle light student, the cabin dweller, Abraham Lincoln, would not have been appreciated as one of the greatest men of history."

The speaker pointed out that when the Roman empire was crumbling under her burden of sin, the Christ was born to light the pathway of the weary.

The next speaker introduced by the chairman was Rev. Mr. Shirey, whose theme was "Play the Man." His thought, the one which he gave special prominence, was that men should be loyal to the right under all circumstances. "Let us play the man," he said. "I would appeal to you fathers, you veterans who fought the battles of our country in times of danger, and to all others, to play the man not only in matters or war with nations, but to do your part in fighting the many evils that are killing more men than all of the wars combined." Rev. Shirley pointed out that elimination of the saloon and kindred evils should be the object of the efforts of the people.

The last speaker was the Rev. Mr. Guild, who spoke on "Patriotism of Principle." Emphasizing the fact that men should hold principle above party and unite in upholding what was right, the speaker said:

"There are dangers that still confront our country; evils that bid for the most effective resisting power of the Christian people. It is an omen of good when great statesmen openly declare that when their party departs from principle they will leave the party. I challenge the patriotism of a man who will follow has party whether he knows it is wrong or right."

Rev. Mr. Guild declared that we are living in a day of patriotism of peace, and that more conventions whose purpose have been to promote international peace have been held in recent years than during all of the preceding years of history.

With the thought "Wisdom is better than weapons of war," Rev. Guild said: "What we want is to instill into the hearts of the people a horror for war and a love for peace."

CITY PLANNERS MEET.

Gather in Boston for Fourth Annual National Conference.

Boston, May 27.—Planners of cities, all men of prominence in various lines of special endeavor, were in Boston today for the opening of the fourth national conference of city planning. Noted architects, sociological workers, economists, horticulturalists, clergymen, transit experts and civic officials from many parts of the United States and Canada, were in the gathering. The conference will continue three days.

Today was given over largely to inspection of the material at hand during an automobile tour of the city. Special attention was paid to the park and waterway systems, the latter including the Charles river basin, the docks, the beaches and the public baths, to educational buildings, including Harvard college, and to housing conditions in several districts. A luncheon tendered by Mayor Fitzgerald preceded this tour. The first conference session was on the evening's program.

AWAKENED TRAIN OF THOUGHT

Little Incident That Would Have Made Almost Any Man Superstitious.

Seeking to dispel the pangs of lonesomeness occasioned by the absence of his wife, who had been away for several days visiting her parents in another city, a fashionable and well-known resident of the East side invited a number of his men friends to his home one night last week to play cards and clink glasses.

Being fond of music the host engaged a four-piece orchestra and while his guests exchanged deals and raised the cut glasses to their lips he found more pleasure in reclining in a favorite leather cushioned chair and listening to the music.

It was nearing the time for departure when one of the merry-makers proposed that each guest drink a toast to the host and that he respond. When all had followed the suggestion they turned toward the host. "Tell us what you are thinking of your wife," one suggested as the party giver hesitated.

Raising his glass to a level with his lips he was about to respond. "I was thinking and wondering—"

Just at that moment the orchestra began its rendition of "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now."

The guests never heard the response, but if they had lingered outside and peered through the library window they would have seen him writing a letter which was later enclosed in an envelope bearing a special delivery stamp. The contents of the message have not been made public, but the wife came home two days later.—Kansas City Journal.

WITTY, AND ACTUAL TRUTH

But Probably Explanation of Washingtonian Failed to Satisfy Foreigner.

There is a certain public man in Washington long noted for his quaint wit. One day last winter, when the sidewalks were quite slippery by reason of a fall of sleet that morning, this official and his wife were proceeding down a thoroughfare carefully picking their way. Just ahead of them was a little foreigner, a member of one of the legations, who was having just as much difficulty as they in keeping on his feet. Finally the little fellow slipped and fell, but not with sufficient force to injure him. His dignity, however, received a frightful shock, for he sprawled over the pavement in the most ludicrous way.

The lady could not restrain a smile, perceiving which the irate foreigner, as soon as he had picked himself up, rushed forward and presented the official with his card.

The recipient looked the card over very carefully. "Beg pardon," said he, "but why am I thus favored?"

"Your ladee here," raged the foreigner, "she laugh at me as I fall! I, sir, I demand the satisfaction!"

The American gently handed back the card. "I'd like to oblige you, my dear sir," said he, "but I think you've addressed the wrong party. I would suggest that you go to this lady's brother and demand of him the satisfaction you seek. She is no blood relative of mine!"

CHICAGO GETS BUSY

Chicago, May 27.—A large force of workmen today began preparing the Coliseum for the use of the republican national convention on June 18. The sub-committee in charge of the arrangements took formal possession of the big building early in the day. It will take nearly three weeks to prepare the structure.

The hall will contain 11,188 seats. There will be 1,932 seats on the platform, 400 for working newspaper men, 1,078 for delegates, 1,078 for alternates, 3,500 for visitors on the main floor, and 3,200 for visitors in the balcony.

Notice for contests between the Taft and Roosevelt forces in the First district of Indiana, and the First district of Texas was received today by Secretary Hayward.

The credential's committee received notices of contesting delegations in the First, Third and Fourth congressional districts in Arkansas, the Third district of Indiana, and the delegations at large from Indiana. Former United States Senator Beveridge heads the delegates at large from Indiana who are for Roosevelt.

BIG CROWDS AT PARK.

Four Thousand Attend Opening of City's Popular Resort.

Robison park was visited by 4,000 people Sunday, which date marked the official opening of the city's favorite amusement resort. The traction company maintained a fifteen-minute schedule during the morning, and in the afternoon and evening thirty-four cars were pressed into service, operating on a two-minute schedule. It is declared that the attendance greatly exceeded that of the opening day last year. Manager C. H. Williams had plenty of entertainment for the guests, and during the afternoon and evening a musical program was given by the Packard band. A surprise and unannounced attraction during the afternoon was a balloon ascension and parachute drop.

DIDN'T KNOW FATHER.

Friends Had to Convince Daughter Before She Would Go.

Petersburg, Ind., May 27.—L. A. Nelson, of Flat Creek, Mo., who left here twelve years ago without means, after separating from his wife, who kept their 2-year-old daughter, returned to this city to become reunited with his family. His wife died a number of years ago and the daughter was placed in the care of the matron of the orphans' home, who in turn placed her in the care of John Stradtner, a prosperous farmer of Madison township. He cared for the child as one of his family.

Nelson begged that his daughter be restored to him, as he was able to provide for her, having made a small fortune in the zinc mines of Missouri. The girl, who had not seen her father since she was 2 years old, had no recollection of him, but old friends of his convinced her that the stranger was her parents, and they left for Flat Creek, where they will live.

BASEBALL ATHLETICS

FAIL FOR FIRST TIME TO HIT BEHIND THE PITCHER

Jefferson Davis Holmquist Holds the Fort Wayne Team to a Couple of Lucky Scratch Hits.

For the first time this season members of Claude Varnell's Billiken troupe failed to hit behind the pitchers in the presence of a home crowd and the first shutout here was registered by Jefferson Davis Holmquist, who had proven pretty easy going for the home band on Friday afternoon when he was shunted in to pull a rescue for Billy Riley.

Jack Mercer debutted at the matinee. He got through the first inning in pretty fair shape after he had passed the first man up. Then he tossed a little variety into the match and before the grapplers had been applied to him he had given a hit, made a wild throw to second, yielded a base on balls and most fractured one of Murphy's ribs with one of his fast shoots.

Loudell had been heating up down near the club house and while Murphy was being rubbed down Shaughnessy sent an "S. O. S." and he took the mound with the bases full. He popped King on a fly to third but got one in Holquist's way and the pitcher sloughed it. Had it been properly played it would have been a single but it rolled to the center field fence and cleaned up the bases. He tried to stretch it and was thrown out at the plate.

Manager Edward Gremminger was the first man to carry a can out of the park. He got into a dispute with Umpire Al Weddidge and while he didn't say so many naughty things he had been scrappy ever since he landed because his club is losing and this nettled the umpire.

Fort Wayne had only one or two chances to score. In the second Keener got a life on Robinson's wild throw to first and Bailey drew a pass. Fabrique hit to the pitcher and Keener was nipped at third. Martin popped to second. McLafferty got a pass, but Loudell failed to hit and was retired on a fly to left.

Loudell pitched good ball all the way through and was taken out of the game to let Bill Bailey bat for him in the hope of starting a winning rally. Renfer pitched the last inning for the Billikens and was not hit.

Notes of the Game.

Shaughnessy hit a drive right at the Durham sign in right center and would have hit it and earned $50, but Murphy nipped the fly although there were two down at the time and Canton was four to the good. A little quick mental work might have prompted him to give the manager a chance to pick off half a century.

In the fifth inning Holmquist pitched only four balls. Loudell fouled the first one and went down short to first on the second. Blount and Vandagrift each attempted to hit the first ball pitched and each went down the same way.

Al Weddidge has shown pretty good judgment in the games he has worked here and has stamped himself as a good minor league umpire. He has made his mistakes, but all of 'em do that. However, he missed one when Coulter was caught off second in the eighth inning. Vandagrift had the ball and the runner slid right into it trying to get back and Manager Gremminger was honest enough to admit the runner was out.

McLafferty made a nice play on Holmquist in the sixth when he scooped his grounder and threw his man out at first.

In throwing to second in the Saturday game Harry Martin hit the umpire in an effort to stop Coulter, who was trying to steal. Weddidge sent the runner back to first and Gremminger protested the game. The umpire is right as the rule is very plain and provides specifically for such cases.

Pitcher Young warmed up before the game just to show the manager what he has. He will probably get a trial within the next few days.

Charlie Alberts pitched the most satisfactory game in the Saturday contest that he has pitched here this season. With errorless support only one run would have been registered against him.

Murphy called for a doctor after he had been hit by a pitched ball and was under the impression one of his ribs had been broken, but the physician found that there was only a deep bruise.

STRANGE LOT IN THE FIGHT TOWN

Las Vegas Presents Queer Conglomeration Among Its Population.

INDIANS ON STREETS

Las Vegas, N. M., May 27.—In the conglomerate United States, the southwest stands alone, unique. It is neither south or west. It is "the other side of the mountains," which means something to those who have gone throug Raton Pass.

The Hotel and Other Typical Scenery in Las Vegas. Note the Burro, a Common Beast of Burden, and the Apache Indians, who used to Cause a Heap of Trouble.

"Lungers," lately in from the east, breathe the thin dry air at 6,383 feet and rub elbows with ranchers, tanned like sole leather by sun and wind.

Indians, sad remnants of a dying race, stalk about and ride on ponies of nondescript color and many scars. Tourists in Pullmans see only the half "civilized" Indian, most useless of humans, but in the "old town," big husky red men stalk majestically, like kings of the earth.

It is a strange mixture of people here, where they will stage the Johnson-Flynn fight, July 4. The old and new huddle promiscuously. When New York was a Dutch trading post, the southwest boasted a civilization which has kept a lot of long whiskered professors busy ever since. The Spanish came in via Mexico and traces of their occupancy are all about Las Vegas.

The east discovered the dry air at this altitude possessed curative qualities for those suffering from lung ailments and the invasion followed. The result is the well dressed traveler walks up a street like an old print, besides a husky rancher, while blanketed Indians wander aimlessly and Mexicans throng everywhere.

In Santa Fe, 100 miles away, the governor, until two years ago, transacted business in a 'dobe building, one story high and a city block square. A priest sung mass in a church 300 years old.

Seventy-six Spanish and twenty-six American governors resided in this palace.

To the outlander it appears strange that a legislature should create a law to permit a 45-round boxing match between a negro and a white man. But it is not strange when you know New Mexico.

Stowed away in a lonesome corner, gazing daily upon the stream of wealth passing in Pullmans, the native longs for things denied him. The Mexican element has a big vote, and looking upon bull fights as sport, sees no harm in two men punching each other with gloves. Hence the law, and the anxiety of Las Vegas for the fight.

Las Vegas is divided into the old town and the new. The old town is where the Mexicans live in 'dobe huts with thatched roofs. In the new town there are typical western stores with flare fronts, a few brick buildings, the Santa Fe buildings and a hotel.

Las Vegas is on the western slope, on the old Santa Fe trail. There are men here who teamed that trail before the railroad came. There are young galoots whose fathers own coal mines and timber lands and sent them here to be useful. There is every kind of human being you can find anywhere and the old is mixed peculiarly with the new.

ROGERS TO PLAY OUTFIELD.

Zanesville Left Hand Pitcher Has About Cinched Another Job.

Zanesville, O., May 27.—Edgar Rogers, who was secured last season from the Toledo club as a pitcher, but who has shown wonderful ability as a hitter, has about cinched his place in the outfield. Rogers is one of the most consistent hitters on the local club, and in event Manager Kelley should return to second base, Bobby Grogan will probably play the utility position, and Rogers will remain in the outfield. Rogers is hitting at a .336 clip.

In the majority of the games there is a decided improvement shown in the work of the players who are getting into better shape with the warm weather, which enables them to get more practice. The scores in the last games are as follows:

S.S.S. PURIFIES BAD BLOOD

Bad blood is responsible for most of our ailments, and when from any cause it becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, trouble in some form is sure to follow. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, pimples, etc., show that the blood is infected with unhealthy humors which have changed it from a pure, fresh stream to a sour, acrid fluid, which forces out its impurities through the pores and glands of the skin. A very common evidence of bad blood is sores and ulcers, which break out on the flesh, often from a very insignificant bruise, or even scratch or abrasion. If the blood was healthy the place would heal at once; but being infected with impurities which are discharged into the wound, irritation and inflammation are set up, the fibres and tissues are broken, and the sore continues until the blood is purified of the cause. S. S. S. is Nature's blood-purifier and tonic, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks. It goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impurity, humor or poison, restores lost vitality, and steadily tones up the entire system. S. S. S. neutralizes any excess of acid in the blood, making it pure, fresh and healthy, and permanently cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Boils, and all other skin eruption or disease. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

STOLDER BOUGHT COCAINE SUPPLY

Victim Still Finds It Possible to Secure the Drug.

IS NOT QUESTIONED

Leroy "Butch" Stolder, a known cocaine fiend who was acquitted less than a week ago in the city court of the charge of stealing a sweater coat and whose apprehension was followed by developments that caused the arrest of Henry W. Niswonger, West Main street druggist, was back in court today on a charge of loitering.

He was found in an outbuilding on West Main street at 2:30 o'clock this morning badly under the influence of cocaine and the arrest has evidently not shut off the supply of the drug. In court today he was so nervous that he was not questioned as to where he made the purchase and was sent over ten days to get him in shape for an examination as to the source of his supply.

He and one or two others who have been habitual users of the drug have been liberally supplied with money in the last few days and he has been in Chicago and said on his return that he intended to go back there and live.

Had Bottle of Alcohol.

George Bush was found along the Nickel Plate tracks yesterday too drunk to talk and beside him was a quart bottle labeled alcohol and bearing the label of the Niswonger drug store.

Frank Adams was arrested for drunkenness early yesterday morning and he had a quart of liquor which he said he bought Saturday night. The paper wrapped around the bottle was clean and indicated that he came into possession of it a very short time before his arrest. He was fined $5 and costs.

There were seven rags picked up on the street Saturday and Sunday and four of them were drunk and insulting to people who passed along Fulton street at the Nickel Plate tracks. They were fined $3, $5, $8 and $10 and sent to jail and the others were let go.

Levi Sommers was in for hawking vegetables on the street and on his promise to quit was released. The same thing happened to Frank Harkenrider.

Clyde Stewart, who was let go twice last week after he had promised to quit drinking, was up for the same old offense and he went over for fifteen days.

THE COURTS.

Notes of the Courts.

Alleging that she was compelled to work for her own clothing while he was making $18 a week, Elizabeth Garty has entered suit for divorce from John J. Garty. They were married in 1902 and have two children and the wife asks for custody. Thomas & Townsend filed the suit.

In the superior court Rose Martin was granted a divorce from Charles Martin and she was given custody of their children. The father was required to pay $15 a month for their support.

May Albright, keeper of a house of ill repute on Harrison street, was fined $50 and costs and given thirty days in the city court, was placed on trial in the circuit court today on her appeal.

Emma Baker says her husband attacked her with a whip because supper was not ready on time. She also says she was weak and ill at the time and just out of a hospital.

Under the will of the late Theodore Sorg all his property goes to his widow and she is named as executrix.

Notice was filed with the county recorder that the Independent Rubber company had increased its capital stock of $50,000 to $60,000.

MANY NOTABLES IN FORT WAYNE

Knights of Columbus Confer Fourth Degree Upon Class.

A FEAST FOLLOWS

The forty-nine Knights of Columbus councils in Indiana were represented at the meeting in Fort Wayne Sunday, when a large class of candidates received the work of the fourth degree of the organization. The fact that this was the first time this degree had ever been conferred outside of Indianapolis added attractiveness to the program and brought to the city some of the most distinguished men of the state. After attending mass at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in the morning, the degree work was exemplified in the afternoon by Master Edward Remmert, of this city, and his staff, composed of Rev. Matthew Schumacher, C. S. C., of Notre Dame; Rev. E. J. Mungovan, of Arcola; Maurice C. Niezer, Joseph Nussbaum, W. J. Lennart and John J. Wolfe, of this city. Albert J. Schoenbein is secretary to Master Remmert.

Among those receiving the degree were thirty from Fort Wayne and the councils from nearby towns were also well represented. Among other candidates for the degree were Judge Gallitzan A. Farabaugh and Judge Wurzer, of South Bend.

The Banquet.

With Maurice C. Niezer presiding as toastmaster, 150 knights attended the banquet served at 8:30 at the Anthony hotel. The menu was elaborate and was followed by "a feast of reason and a flow of soul," which occupied nearly two hours. Among the speakers were Rev. Matthew Schumacher, of Notre Dame, director of education, and state chaplain of the Knights of Columbus, who spoke on the subject, "The Builders." Charles M. Niezer, of this city, talked on the subject, "The Candidates." Master Edward Remmert, of the fourth degree, had for his subject, "The Fourth Degree." Impromptu speakers were William F. Fox, of Indianapolis, state deputy; Judge Farabaugh, of South Bend, and Adam A. Reinhart, of Fort Wayne, at whose instance a vote of sympathy and best wishes was tendered to A. C. Alter by the entire assemblage rising to its feet. Mr. Alter is a fourth degree member whose illness prevented his attendance.

"The Builders."

Rev. Schumacher in his address on "The Builders," declared that the builder is a man who builds, one who contributes something to the welfare of the country in which he lives or to the world at large.

"He is a man who can give us a Moses like Michael Angelo," said the speaker, "or one who can give us a Sistine Madonna like Raphael, a heavenly music of Gounod or Mozart; one who in fine lives that which is best in life and exemplifies it in such a way as to make others realize that it is the best and they are the better for knowing it. Every builder conceives an idea tested, and if it bears the strain, a lasting good will be the result. As St. Paul puts it, 'There is a sowing of the seed, a watering and gathering of the fruit.'"

Rev. Schumacher declared that this might be illustrated by two outstanding facts in history of the world today, the religion of Christ and the American republic.

WILL PUT TEDDY IN NOMINATION

WILLIAM A. PRENDERGAST.

Chicago, May 27.—William A. Prendergast, the bull-throated controller of New York city, who can stand on the city hall and make his voice carry to the Bronx without busting a windpipe, and who's as big as his voice, will nominate Roosevelt for president in the republican convention in Chicago.

That Prendergast is some boy as a spellbinder is shown by the fact that, although a republican, he has been elected to a city office in New York. He's been one of the chief Roosevelt fighters against the old Barnes machine for years, and this year is a Roosevelt delegate to the national convention.

Train Passengers Forced by Wreck to Change Trains.

New York, May 26.—Eight freight cars of a West Shore through train, bound from Buffalo to New York, were derailed between Bogota and Teaneck, and the tracks were torn up for 500 feet. A Chicago limited train followed the fast freight and it was a sight that amused spectators when partly-clad passengers rudely aroused in their berths, marched along the tracks past the wreck to an accommodation train.

The contents of the derailed cars were strewn all over the tracks. A barrel of choice pork rolled into the back yard of an Irishman. He found it opened and ready for use. Sauerkraut and pigs' feet were found in abundance.

SOCIAL FOR CHILDREN.

Children of the Sabbath school of Achduth Veshalom temple will be entertained Tuesday afternoon in the vestry rooms of the synagogue. Games and good things to eat will be provided and if the weather is good automobile rides will be added to the regular program.

MANY ATTEND THE DEDICATION

Impressive Services Mark Notable Event at St. Andrew's Church.

THE DAY'S SERMONS

The services incident to the dedication of the splendid new church edifice of the St. Andrew's parish Sunday were largely attended, crowds thronging the grounds of the parish in the eastern part of the city long before the appointed hour for their commencement, 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and the clergy from the parochial residence of Rev. George Horstman, the pastor, marched in procession to the church.

The dedicatory services proper were impressive and brief, conducted by the bishop, who, with the clergy and children, passed in procession around the entire building, Bishop Alerding sprinkling the walls and foundation with holy water. Returning to the front the doors of the church were unlocked and thrown open by the pastor and the procession entered, the Litany of the Saints being chanted as the clergy proceeded to the sanctuary. Then the bishop and his attendants passed around the interior of the edifice, sprinkling it with holy water and passing to the sanctuary again, when the tabernacle was blessed.

Solemn High Mass.

Following these dedicatory ceremonies solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. William S. Hogan, pastor of St. Paul's church, Valparaiso. Rev. Charles H. Thiele, rector of St. Peter's church, was assistant priest; Rev. Joseph E. Delaney, rector of St. Patrick's, and Rev. A. E. Lafontaine, diocesan school superintendent, were deacons of honor; Rev. Jos. Thieken, pastor of St. Catherine's church, Cincinnati, deacon of the mass; Rev. Simon M. Kuhnmuench, C. PP. S., a member of the faculty of St. Joseph's college, Collegeville, sub-deacon; Rev. William C. Miller, secretary to the bishop, master of ceremonies; Rev. Charles E. McCabe, pastor of St. Genevieve's church, Gas City, assistant master of ceremonies. Other priests present in the sanctuary were Rev. Albin Overman, pastor of St. Aloysius' church, Cincinnati; Rev. Eugene Grimme, C. PP. S., pastor of St. Augustine's church, Minster, Ohio; Rev. Andrew Gietl, C. PP. S., of Collegeville; Rev. Thomas Eisenring, C. PP. S., chaplain at St. Joseph's hospital, and the pastor, Rev. George Horstman. Rev. Simon M. Yenn, diocesan director of church music, who was in charge of the choir at the first communion services at the Cathedral, arrived for the close of services at St. Andrew's.

The Bishop's Address.

Immediately after the mass the bishop, Rt. Rev. Herman J. Alerding, addressed the large congregation present, his introductory words being as follows:

"I must congratulate this parish of St. Andrew's upon this magnificent occasion, the beginning of a new parish which, with the blessing of Almighty God, will bring abundant good to all who belong to it. It is a splendid gift from you good people to Almighty God."

The bishop alluded to the expense connected with the erection of the church, academy and the parochial residence, and urged the people to be loyal to the pastor in seeing that the parish was freed from its financial obligations.

There were two dedicatory sermons preached, one in German by Rev. Eugene Grimme, of Minster, Ohio, the pastor of the St. Augustine's church, and the other by Rev. Charles Thiele, rector of the St. Peter's church in this city, who spoke in English. In his sermon Father Grimme emphasized the necessity and influence of the church of Christ and showed how the faithful were rewarded for their adherence and loyalty to it.

Father Thiele's Sermon.

The sermon of Rev. Father Thiele was based on the words of the gospel, "This day is salvation come to this house," and following the introductory and exemplification of the text, he said in part:

"The Catholic church has at all times raised her voice in favor of the beauty of the house of God and has always praised those who construct their houses of worship well and adorn them with pictures and statues and all that is Christian in art."

In the development of his sermon Father Thiele spoke of three points: What we see in the church, what we hear and what we receive in the way of spiritual blessings. "The divine word," he said, "makes us familiar with the most important truths around which our temporal and eternal welfare leans; that word shows us the means which we must employ if we want to merit eternal happiness, this word shows us sin in all its malice and ugliness and advises us by prayer to desist from it and to do penance. This word also shows us virtue in all its beauty and reward, encourages us to love it and thus step by step to retain the highest perfection."

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock solemn vespers were celebrated at St. Andrew's church. Rev. William Hogan was celebrant; Rev. Joseph Thieken, deacon; Rev. Simon Kuhnmuench, C. PP. S., sub-deacon, and Rev. Charles McCabe, master of ceremonies. The work of the choir, both morning and afternoon, was most praiseworthy. Joseph Orth presided at the organ.

The Most Daring Feats In History Laid Bare By the Discovery of The Original BRADY War Photographs

Long-Lost, Priceless Photographs, Mute Witnesses of the Civil War, Found Hidden in an Old New York Garret

LIKE an Arabian Nights dream reads the story of the discovery of all of the hundreds of original photographs of soldiers and battlefields, buried in an old New York attic. Stranger still is the tale of how they remained hidden for nearly half a century, and not the least interestiug is the story of the man who took the photographs—Mathew B. Brady.

It is not likely that any other photographer in this country will be favored again with such a monopoly of distinguished patronage as had Mathew B. Brady in the early 60's. To visit Washington or New York and not have a portrait made by him was to admit a lack of means or appreciation, for Brady was pre-eminently the photographer of his day in the United States.

But Brady was above all things an artist, and when the first gun of the war was fired he became eager to try out his genius on the field of battle. By hard work with Lincoln and Stanton, he secured special protection from the Government for his big, clumsy cameras, and together with the United States Secret Service under Allen Pinkerton, he set off with his men, his wagons and his cameras, and for four years he and his followers braved death to secure photographs of scenes of conflict, the dash of cavalry, the clash of infantry, deeds of self-sacrifice and heroism on sea and battlefield, in hospital, camp and prison.

More Than Any One Soldier Saw

Brady penetrated strange places and saw strange sights. Favored by the Secret Service, he and his daring followers penetrated everywhere—from Florida to Pennsylvania, from Washington to New Orleans, from Mississippi to the sea—on board ships-of-war—on the battle-line—in prisons—in hospitals—in camp. The pictures Brady and these brave men took reveal "The Crimson Drama"—the war of brother against brother—from start to finish. They deal with the human side of the struggle—the pathos, the laughter, the tragedy, and even the comedy of those four years. But, from the smallest to the largest photographs, each tells a story of courage and fortitude on both sides—and of man's willingness to sacrifice himself for a principle.

In our imaginings of war we always see long lines of soldiers with neat caps and trim coats and shining accoutrements. In other words, we see the parade that passed down the street last Fourth of July. Looking at the Brady pictures we realize how different war is. The spick and span soldier is nowhere to be found. Instead, there are men coatless and hatless and shoeless, with heavy growths of beard and tousled heads, men in their shirt sleeves with dirty faces and very, very tired. In our mind's eye we have always seen rows of horses riding forth at a gallop, all in a straight line with gallantly clad officers waving their swords. These pictures show us the real thing. The gallantry is there and the swords, but the horses chafe and the men have no time to wave their swords—they are too busy.

Brady's Photographs—Living Witnesses of the War

In the last half century the men who fought under the Stars and Stripes or the Stars and Bars, have grown old and many of them have died. The torn-up battlefields are covered with the white bloom of cotton and swaying grace of wheat. The old ships have gone to the bottom of the sea or to the junk heap. The guns have rusted, the fortifications have rotted away, the ruined cities have come back to more vigorous life; even the bitter feelings that caused brother to fight brother have faded away. But the photographs of Brady, eyewitnesses of the four years' drama, are here intact, as clear, as reliable as they were fifty years ago.

Brady was a genius. Even today, no finer work is done than he did in the hurly-burly of that great war. He had a keen eye for artistic effects, with all an artist's intuition of what would make a good picture. His portraits show the souls of men through their outward lineaments—like a painting of Rembrandt's.

There are many thousands of men whose portraits in these pictures are so clear and distinct that they will have no difficulty recognizing their younger selves and their comrades, while many children and relatives will be able to find a likeness of their loved ones in a uniform of blue or gray.

Since Brady and the photographers he inspired were with the armies from the first gun at Sumter to the last minute at Appomattox, these hundreds of pictures just discovered make a veritable record of the great struggle—a personally conducted tour through the war.

BRADY AFTER THE BATTLE OF BULL RUN

BUT what of Brady? Many indeed were his narrow escapes. Once—after Bull Run—Brady, in his linen duster, wandered in the woods three days, fearing capture every minute. Another time, at Fredericksburg, the Confederates, across the river, espied his cameras, glistening in the sunlight like cannon, and opened fire on them. Only the marvelous "Brady luck" saved the great artist's life. And so on, every day of the struggle of the war between the North and South, Brady and the photographers that followed him, daring all, looked into the guns of the enemy as well as the faces of friends. Through their eyes in these photographs brought back to light one can see the people of the North and South merry-making in camps, lingering in hospital, lying in prison, spying on the enemy, manning the battleships, punishing the deserter, drilling the awkward squad, the dead on the field of battle, etc.

Brady's Work of 50 Years Ago Unequaled Today

Clear and sharp are these photographs, with a brilliancy the photographers of today do not get. It is said by many that no plates are made nowadays capable of receiving the deep impressions that made Brady's pictures stand forth in such vivid relief. Fortunately for posterity, Brady had made two sets of photographs. After the war, having sacrificed his business and his health, he had to sacrifice even the fruits of his four years hard work and devotion. One set of photographs he stored in a warehouse in Washington; he was so "hard up" that he actually had to surrender this for storage charges. The U. S. Government bought these photographs at auction for $2840.

In order to go through the war, Brady borrowed his supplies from a dealer in photographic materials in New York—a firm still doing business today. This concern advanced him many thousand dollars' worth of supplies. When the war was over, he gave up his second complete set of photographs to them in order to cancel the debt.

These were the days of reconstruction. It was almost impossible to interest a man in anything except the stupendous task of once more uniting North and South, and effacing the marks of the conflict. Congress voted a gift to Brady of $25,000 in recognition of his four years of service. Today these photographs would cost much more to take than what the Government paid. Fifty years ago, when very heavy cameras had to be used and a dark room moved about from camp to camp, the expense was much greater and Brady had sunk in the adventure every cent of his own, had borrowed heavily, and at the end of the war he was bankrupt. As if to pile on misfortune the Government did not pay him his little money until eight years after the war was over. Brady never recovered. He broke down—wandered about—wretchedly poor and unhappy—and died in the almsward of a hospital in New York.

That was the fate of a man who created a work which General Garfield and General Benj. F. Butler said was worth $150,000 to the Government as a secret record of its warfare.

IT IS our good fortune that Brady made two negatives of each scene; so that when the war was over he had two complete and almost duplicated sets. One hidden away in the vaults of the U. S. Government, the other set containing thousands of pictures was knocked from pillar to post—first in one man's hands, then in another's—even Brady himself lost track of them—and for twenty-five years they lay in a tumble-down garret in New York.

The story of the discovery of the Brady photographs, how the editors of a great national monthly scoured the corners of the globe to add to his wonderful collection and obtain the "story" connected with each picture, has been told by the publishers. Through their enterprise, the pictures have been gathered and now form a veritable Civil War education which must take its place in every public and private library as the final authority, the indisputable witness of history made in 1861-1865. The publishers of this work are deserving of great praise for bringing these mute witnesses to life.

But to Brady, the man who gave up fame and fortune, to immortalize great operations, to get in a flash of light a whole dramatic story that the slow pencil in the hand of the artist could never catch, a country united owes a debt which can never be repaid.

ADOPT MAN OF 45 AS SON.

Williams Was Chum of Kennedy, Who Wedded Rich Woman.

Worcester, Mass., May 27.—Charles A. Williams, a piano salesman, has been adopted at the age of 45 as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenndy, formerly of Worcester, now residing in Sicily.

When Mrs. Ellen Frances Rogers, the richest woman of Worcester, was married in France to Walter G. S. Kenndy, a music teacher, Mrs. Rogers was 67 and Mr. Kennedy 63.

Mr. Kennedy is a scion of an old Worcester family, who was obligated to support himself. He studied music and taught singing, and was extremely successful. He became acquainted with Mr. Williams, a piano salesman, who worked for various piano houses in Worcester, and a firm friendship followed.

Mrs. Rogers in her youth married A. Luke Cappron, with whom she lived for ten years. They were divorced and she resumed her maiden name, retaining the prefix "Mrs." She lived in a house in High street in the center of the old-time fashionable district, and was a warm friend of both Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Williams.

Worcester society was surprised one day to hear that Mrs. Rogers had gone to Sicily with Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Williams. Mrs. Rogers purchased a beautiful villa in Sicily, and last year she was married to Mr. Kennedy.

Mr. Williams, the constant friend of Mr. Kennedy, had grown indispensable to the newly married couple. He always traveled with them, and word has just been received here of his legal adoption.

WE'RE RUSHING INTO SUNS.

Earth Is Headed Straight for Cluster of Hercules, Astronomers Say.

Pasadena, Cal., May 27.—Disquieting reports from eastern scientific centers to the effect that the earth was plunging at a terrific rate toward the cluster of Hercules, whose twelve suns would burn it to a cinder, failed to create consternation among the scientists at the Mt. Wilson observatory.

Residents of Pasadena were given the reassuring information by Prof. W. S. Adams that, while it was true that the earth was racing toward the fiery suns at the rate of 60 miles a minute, it would require several million years to reach that cluster.

Even then, it is announced, the course of the earth may be changed before the collision.

WIDOWS WIN ELECTION.

Oppose Town's Incorporation and Men Friends Vote Their Way.

Tipton, Ind., May 27.—The fact has developed that the result of the incorporation election at Sharpsville came about largely through the efforts of the widows of that place. There are more than forty of them. They own their property, and did not wish to meet the increased taxation caused by incorporation, and while they could not vote they decided each should get a voter to represent her. They were successful in the effort, and those who were sure that incorporation would carry admit that Sharpsville has a new sort of woman suffragette who does things.

The tunnel through the Jungfrau toward its top has been completed. Ultimately tourists will be taken to a point within a few hundred feet of the summit by an elevator.

SEARCHING FOR BANDIT'S GOLD

Oklahoma Bluff is Believed to Hold a Great Treasure.

JAMES GOT BOOTY

Newkirk, Okla., May 27.—Rumors of vast treasure bidden in the vicinity of Coleman's bluff, six miles west of here, and belonging to J. M. Coleman, caused many bands of explorers to make their headquarters there last fall.

Among the adventurers that started investigations was a band from New Mexico which seemed more determined than the others to make the secret of the bluff their own. They made several surveys in the fall and early part of the winter, but were compelled to give up their search for the time on account of the severity of the weather.

Science to Their Aid.

The New Mexicans say they have a scientific mineral stone which will locate mineral of any kind in the ground. They say that with this rock they have located several gold mines in New Mexico. This rock, they say, can only be used in dry and warm weather, and that when they tried to use it last fall its action was imperfect on account of the cold weather. However, they assert that they have found more signs of the treasure on Coleman's bluff than on any other point along the Arkansas river.

Frank James, the old outlaw, who was one of the early marauders in Oklahoma, has been searching recently in the vicinity of the bluff and along the Chickaski river. He is now waiting for the arrival of the other parties with their modern instruments and then will join them in their search.

Hidden in '67 and '68.

The treasure, which was hidden by bandits in 1867 and 1868, if it is hidden on Coleman's bluff, has sunk so deeply into the earth as to be extremely difficult to find. The ground has changed considerably. Some parts have sunk and some have risen, landslides have covered many landmarks, and Frank James, who is now past 70, says he can scarcely recognize the place as being the same.

The treasure was collected just after the civil war, when a band of marauders was formed from the remnants of bands of guerillas.

The band continued its lawless deeds for several years, heaping up a store of wealth, which it did not need, but only kept for revenge. The wealth was hidden in their cave.

LIGHTNING'S PRIZE FREAK.

Unseats Girl From Chair and Lifts It to Sofa.

Detroit, May 27.—In an electrical storm at Owosso a bolt of lightning knocked a chair from under Miss Hazel Vankirk, aged 16, and sat her down on the floor, unharmed. The chair was hoisted to a sofa several feet distant.

The Vankirk family was at supper. The bolt of lightning struck the roof directly over the dining room, split the rafters and ripped up a lot of shingles, then apparently shot down one side of the room and along the floor to where Miss Hazel was sitting.

"CASE-HARDENED" AD MAN WRITES

Who else would dare make this offer? We quote from a letter from H. M. Johnson, Vice President of the Daily Republic, Rockford, Illinois.

"In the twenty-seven years that it has been my business to deal with copy of all kinds I have never seen more convincing logical and forceful ads than those you are sending out. They have a ring of sincerity and the statements have the tone of being a recital of facts that should inspire confidence. They have so impressed a case-hardened ad man that he is exceedingly curious to know if it really does the wonderful things recited."

In reply we sent Editor Johnson some convincing literature, following it up with the statement that if he knew of a definite case of Bright's Disease, a worthy person to whom our aid would mean something, we would send a course of Fulton's Renal Compound in an attempt to establish the genuineness of the claims made in the very shadows of the Republic's Editorial Rooms. We added that we do not claim recoveries in all cases and might make a failure, but that we would take the chance, and trusted within three months to show such results that the patient would be in comfort and would have new heart and courage in the reasonable probability that recovery could ultimately be had.

Ask yourself this question—would anybody else in the world dare make this offer?

Fulton's Renal Compound can be had at D. & N. Pharmacy.

CAN'T VOTE; WON'T PAY.

Chicago, May 27.—Mrs. Belle Squire, president of the No Vote, No Tax league, refused to fill out a personal property tax schedule. Instead, she wrote this letter in a blank space of the schedule and mailed it to the assessors:

"Gentlemen—Just so long as the county of Cook hands me a tax schedule on the ground that I am a citizen of Illinois and must pay my share of the common expense and then refuses me a ballot on the ground that I am a woman, and as a woman have no right to make my citizenship effectual, just so long will I refuse to be voluntarily on your lists. I decline the honor.

SEE THEM WIGGLE

When the Doctor says "It's coffee, stop it if you want to get well."

What a mean doctor, but then plain facts are best to know, so we may cut out the things that hurt.

A few years ago a Cincinnati man went to Germany for his health and to consult one of the famous physicians in Berlin.

The Dr. found him a nervous wreck suffering from loss of sleep and constipation and about 50 lbs. off his usual weight.

But let him tell his own experience:

"The Dr. surprised me very much by asking at once if I was a coffee drinker, and on telling him I used it two or three times a day, he said: 'It is poison to some persons.'

"After carefully examining me he told me there was nothing the matter with me whatever but what could be entirely cured in 30 days by letting coffee and other stimulants alone and dieting.

"So I put back home and wife got some Postum for me.

"The first trial didn't please me but we found it hadn't been boiled enough. The next meal it was fine.

"I seemed to begin to get well at once and kept it up until I gained back my 50 lbs. and all the old sick times from coffee left for good. Now I am in prime health, fine appetite, and sleep like a boy."

NEW CAR ROUTINE ON THIS MORNING

West Siders Find Objection to Jefferson Short Line.

HAVE A PETITION

The new street car routing went into effect this morning and city cars under the new schedule were operated on regular time over the new routes. Owing to the fact that a great deal of publicity had been given the new system, not much confusion was in evidence on the part of patrons. The traction company had placed cards announcing the new service in all the city cars for several days previous to the change.

Under the new schedule Creighton and West Main street cars are routed together. Pontiac cars go north on Calhoun street to transfer corner and then make a loop west to Harrison, north to Columbia, east to Calhoun and then south again to Pontiac. Huffman and East Main cars are routed together as are Lewis and Lakeside. No change was made in the operation of Spy Run avenue, Taylor street, Centlivre or Driving park cars. Broadway and South Wayne avenue cars will continue on the old routing, and a short line will be operated on West Jefferson street.

The only objection filed thus far by patrons comes from residents in the west side who find fault with the short line on West Jefferson street, and a petition has been circulated among the residents of that section of the city and is being generally signed. A committee of west side women visited the traction officials Saturday afternoon, asking them to reconsider the "stub" line of Jefferson street.

What They Want.

The petition protesting the short line on Jefferson street is as follows:

"The management has never suffered by of the disconforts of the short line r it would never think of compelling its patrons to submit to the old wretched condition.

"For instance, on a wet morning, the passengers on leaving the short line, wait in the pouring rain. A crowded Broadway car comes along and it is not stopped to take on passengers and then another ten or fifteen minutes' delay is experienced. This, to people who are due at business houses at a certain time, 8 o'clock, for instance, means great inconvenience. In the evening when the people are going to the theater and other places, the same conditions prevail. We have paid our transportation; have been carried less than eight blocks on our way and 'dumped' to wait until a conductor comes along with a car which he thinks is not too much overloaded to take us.

"At 6 o'clock conditions are worse, except that the day does not count as it does in the morning. We climb over or are pushed into a dense crowd of sitting and standing passengers and again wait at Broadway and Jefferson with no available shelter at that hour but one of the saloons.

"Was not the longer line put on to relieve congestion on Broadway cars and give convenience to passengers? Then why should the new management revert to obsolete methods? We feel sure they were not aware of the conditions described when they decided to return to the short line, and we hope, now that their attention is called to the matter, that they will see fit to continue the present service."

FISH CHOKES WATER SNAKE.

Horns Stick in Reptile's Throat, So It Cannot Swallow.

Darby, Pa., May 27.—Joe Brooks and J. Leonard Franklin, both well known Darbyites, say they are willing to swear on a stack of Bibles that while they were watching the flood in Darby creek they saw a four-foot water snake with a six-inch catfish in its mouth. The snake swam to the bank, where it attempted to swallow the fish, but each time was compelled to disgorge and try again.

After watching it for five minutes and finding that the snake was finally unable either to swallow the fish or disgorge it they crept up on the reptile, and, killing it with a rock, found that the catfish's horns, or fins, were firmly imbedded in the snake's throat.

SAY NEW COINS WILL CUT PRICES

Three-Cent Loaves, Lunches and Other Things Will Come.

MANY OPPOSE ISSUE

Washington, May 27.—Three-cent car fare, 3-cent schooners of beer, 3-cent pies, 3-cent loaves of bread and a multiplicity of other things that will cost 3 cents, are expected as the result of the enactment into law of the bill which recently passed the house providing for the coinage of a 3-cent piece. The bill also authorizes the coinage of a half-cent piece.

The idea to have a 3-cent piece originated in Cleveland, where they have a 3-cent car fare, the bill being introduced by Representative Bulkeley, of Ohio. It is the intention to have the 3-cent piece made of a composition of which nickel will be the base, and the half-cent piece of copper and zinc.

Street Railways Fear It.

All of the street railways of New York city have filed a strong protest against the passage of the bill, and the American Railway association is also waging an active campaign against the measure. In general, the banks seem to be opposed to the bill, and a most determined fight is to be made against it by those who failed to get in their work while the bill was pending before the house.

Cash register manufacturers assert that if the bill is enacted into a law it will cause a complete recasting of their machines and representatives of the slot machines, who opposed it first, now appear to favor it, having been assured by the director of the mint that the coins can be produced in such form that they cannot be used as substitutes for 1-cent, 5-cent or 10-cent pieces.

Some newspapers are opposing it, it is stated, on the ground that it will mean the appearance of a half-penny paper, which cannot be afforded on account of the high price of white paper. Altogether the proposition has wakened a great many people, with others to be heard from, and the finance committee, which has the bill under consideration, has been asked from numerous sources to grant extended hearings.

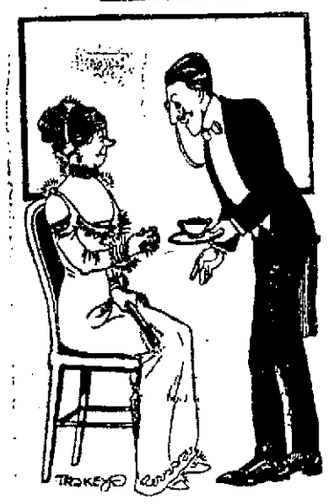
The Advantage to the Poor.

Mayor Newton Baker, of Cleveland, and Mayor Brand Whitlock, of Toledo, summarized the reasons for the 3-cent piece in the following statement sent to the committee on coinage, weights and measures:

"A 3-cent piece will be of incalculable immediate advantage to the communities wherein prices, fares, etc., of various commodities and service, are on a 3-cent basis or a multiple thereof—that is, 3-cent fare in Cleveland, Toledo and elsewhere on street railways, 3-cent articles on bill of fare, 3-cent amusements, etc.

"A 3-cent piece will provide a smaller medium with which to purchase hundreds of articles which are now arbitrarily sold for a nickel for want of a smaller coin, thus establishing a juster and more rational relation between value and price.

"A 3-cent piece will enable the masses to purchase commodities in smaller quantities as in European countries, thus encouraging economical buying. There are no valid substantial objections to the coinage of a 3-cent piece. On the other hand, the advantages to be gained are many and substantial, and we believe a careful consideration of them will win your confidence and approval and indorsement of the bill."



"Her gilt was evident."

WOMEN TO SAVE NATION.

Urged to Combat the High Cost of Living.

Cincinnati, May 27.—It is the housewives of this country and not the physicians who must co-operate to prevent future generations of America from being puny, undersized and liable to disease, according to Dr. Edwin M. Craig, of Norwood, who spoke on "Food Values" to the members of the National Housewives' league.

"The nation is threatened with a period of decline owing to the high cost of living, and unless housewives learn how to buy economically, how to substitute cheaper foods for meats, there are going to be more and more divorces, owing to comfortless homes, and the race will suffer," said Dr. Craig.

"Husbands are not going to stand poor meals at high cost, and unless the housewives learn how to meet the conditions of life there are going to be more and more desertions. Wives should buy foods in large quantities, should never run bills and, above all, should never buy furniture on the installment plan."

FOR FEITS BIG SUM.

Widow of Millionaire Yachtsman Will Remarry.

Boston, May 27.—Mrs. James A. Garland, widow of the millionaire yachtsman, will be married to Francis Cushing Green and will thereby automatically forfeit a fortune of $10,000,000.

Mrs. Garland was bound by her husband in his will in exactly the same way as Mrs. John Jacob Astor—that she could only retain the fortune by remaining single.

The Garland fortune now goes to Mrs. Garland's three sons. If the sons die without heirs the money is to go to Harvard university.

FLOWERS FOR THE LIVING.

Ohio Woman Organizer of Society With That Motto.

Bellefontaine, O., May 27.—Mrs. Jennie Goodheart is the organizer of a society with the motto "Flowers for the Living."

The idea has long been in her mind and crystallized during the last six weeks, since she has been confined to bed with nervous prostration. So when neighbors and friends visited her she enrolled them in her society.

"We haven't named the organization yet," she said today, "but we expect it to be permanent. The membership is limited to a few blocks in our neighborhood. The members pay 5 cents to join and 10 cents a month, and from this source we expect to keep our treasury always supplied with money. We will aim to keep every invalid in our district supplied with flowers always. It is my belief that flowers in the sick room cheer more hearts than a bouquet on a casket."

In proud proof that the society is already at work, Mrs. Goodheart pointed from her bed to beautiful flowers in her room. One of the members of this society suggests for a name "The Goodheart club."

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., May 27.—Drought and heat southwest today led to general buying of wheat. Sellers were hard to find and prices quickly advanced. Opening prices here were ½c to ¾c up. July started at $1.11⅛ to $1.11½, a gain of ⅛c to ⅜c and rose to $1.11¾.

Uncertain prospects in Nebraska and need of rain in Oklahoma turned the market still higher. A reaction, however, followed in consequence of Texas beginning harvest, with conditions ideal. The close was weak at $1.10⅞ for July, a net gain of ⅛c.

Corn had an easy tone but selling was checked by the strength in wheat. Crop advices favored the bears. July opened unchanged to ⅜c lower at 76c to 76¾c, and seemed inclined to keep within those limits.

Prices later advanced in sympathy with wheat, but then receded, owing to the same cause. The finish was weak, with July at 76¼c, a decline of 1⅛c net.

Dubious prospects for oats in Illinois made prices of that cereal firm. July started ⅛c to ⅜c higher at 51¼c to 51½c and climbed to 51⅝c.

Weakness developed in provisions as a result of large receipts of hogs and of lower prices at the yards. First transactions ranged from 5 to 12½c down, with September options $18.30 to $18.35 for pork, $10.72½ to $10.75 for lard and $10.27½ for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, May 27.—The market held steady with few changes of note at the opening, aside from the 1-point gain of People's Gas and ¾ for Canadian Pacific. Otherwise, changes were merely fractional on light dealings.

The dullness in today's early session in the stock market was attributed to the United States Supreme court, which reconvened after a fornight's recess. Wall street professed to believe that the court would hand down some important decisions and pending such developments it decided to make no commitments.

The market closed heavy. In the last hour it became known that the supreme court had adjourned without acting on the coal cases the market again weakened slightly.

Explaining an Oversight.

"George," she said sweetly, "didn't you know that Lent is over?"

"Of course I did," he replied.

"Then possibly you didn't pass a candy store on your way here to night."—Detroit Free Press

Guess at Philanthropist's Identity.

John M. Longyear, of Brookline, is now thought by his friends to be possibly the mysterious contributor of $2,500,000 to "Tech." Henry C. Frick, Thomas A. Edison and Andrew Carnegie are previous guesses. The list bids fair to resemble a directory of philanthropic multimillionaires. Mr. Longyear, who thus has greatness thrust upon him, made his money in ore and timber lands in Michigan and elsewhere in the west.

Today in History.

May 27, 1898, the machinery of the Merrimac broke down. The Merrimac was only a collier and ordinarily history does not worry about colliers. The broken down Merrimac so delayed the "flying" squadron that she was unable to "fly" back to Key West. If they had reached Key West, the Merrimac would not have gotten back to Santiago in time for Hobson to sink her in the channel; and so a seat in congress may depend on a plugged steam pump.

PREACHERS MADE BY MAIL.

Lack of Episcopal Preachers Brings New Project to Front.

Cleveland, O., May 27.—Bishops, deans, archdeacons, general missionaries and seminary professors of the Protestant Episcopal church throughout the United States have had committed to them a project to establish a correspondence school to teach lay workers how to expound the Gospel. Irwin Tucker, a student in the General Theological seminary, who is one of the promoters of the project, said that the courses in the school would be started October 1 next if possible.

"Say, teacher, don't you know whipping makes boys stupid?"
"Yes, and it also makes them smart."
